Broun Again Heads News Guild

SAN FRANCISCO-(U.P)-Heywood Broun was elected by acclamation Friday to his sixth consecutive term as president of the American Newspaper guild.

Jonathan Eddy was defeated for reelection as international vicepresident by Milton Kaufman of New York. Kaufman was elected by acclamation after balloting showed he had a clear majority over Eddy and Julius Klyman of St. Louis.

(1) Asserted that further eifort was needed to successfully conclude the Hearst newspaper strike in Chicago; (2) Vigorously opposed propaganda discriminating against religions and races; Asks Billings' Release (3) Petitioned Gov. Culbert L. Olson of California to pardon

Warren K. Billings: (4) Urged Canadian labor to fight for continued unity in the face of breaches between its United States affiliates;
(5) Resolved that "whereas

Harry Bridges has worked faithfully for democracy and trade unionism and is being persecuted by selfish groups, the guild voices unqualified support of him:"

(6) Expressed confidence that formal obstacles to United States labor unity will be terminated and declared that American Federation of Labor leaders are responsible for them; Condemns Coughlin

(7) Directed the guild's International Executive Board to create a committee to support the New Deal in 1940 and urged locals to engage local, non-partisan political organizations; (8) Condemned the Rev.

Charles E. Coughlin "as an enemy of progressive unionism, a har-binger of fascism and a would-be strike-breaker:"
