Group Theatre Stars To

Hollywood; Males Will Answer Charges

Elia Kazan, Curt Conway, Ann Shepherd and Hester Sondergaard, all well-known members of New York's Group Theatre who have appeared singly on previous Arch Oboler programs, will be co-starred in the young author-producer's "History of a Mug" which is to be presented over WJZ Sat-young politician of Middleton, as it is viewed thru the disillusioned eyes of his mother. It shows the grave dangers of carrying to their logical conclusion the high-pressure techniques for winning friends!

and influencing people. Kazan, who has the title role in this realistic drama, will be remembered for Broadway appearances in "The Gentle People" and "Golden Boy" and for his recent ler's "The Ivory Tower." Conway also scored in "Golden Boy" and in Oboler's "Sole Survivors." Miss Shepherd was in "The Gentle People" and also in "The Engulfed Cathedral" in this radio series. And Miss Sondergaard won considerable acclaim in the Group Theatre-Theatre Guild A E.C. Lycoming engine, relimit the Group Theatre-Theatre Guild complete, 457 McPheron; Lake production, "My Heart's in the 1991. Highlands" as well as in Oboler's
