Anniversary Of Noted Author Will Be Observed On Radio

Frank Munn, Tenor, Schedules Program Of Waltz Hits: Duke Of Paducah To Demonstrate His Genius

The 100th anniversary of the birth of Bret Harte will be commemorated by the National Broadcasting Co. on Friday, when, for the second time, it dramatizes the author's famous "Outcasts of Poker Flat" over WJZ at 7 p. m.

A special musical score which was written for the original production by Wells Hively, noted concert pianist, organist and composer, also will be repeated. Hively, a Californian who is well acquainted with the Bret Harte country, has translated the atmosphere of the mining camps into striking

The composer is well known to radio listeners for his work in such productions as "Robin Hood," "The Christmas Carol" and "The Courtship of Miles Standish."

"The Outcasts of Poker Flat," tells the story of John Oakhurst, a gambler, and his motley crew of pickpockets and camp followers, who are driven out of the mining town of Poker Flat during a "cleanup."

While encamped in the mountains they meet Tom Simpson and his girl, Tiny, who do not recognize them for crooks but accept them as comrades when a snowstorm isolates the little party. The tragic climax of the story comes after Oakhurst and his companions have been completely regenerated by Tom and Tiny during a long and losing battle against the

Frank Munn, tenor, will sing the sensationally popular waltz Eastern Standard-Subtract Ore Hi hits, "Stay in My Arms, Cinder- for CST, 2 Hrs. for MT-P. M. ella" and "A Man and His Dream," during the Waltz Time program Friday at 8:00 p. m., over WEAF. Abe Lyman and his orchestra will be heard in "Mignonette," "Celilia," "Waters of the Perkiomen," and "Dark Eyes." The chorus will join the orchestra: in "I'm Always Chasing Rainhows," and the old favorite, "Wonderful One.'

Nevin's "The Rosary" and Rossini's "La Danza" will be sung by Lucille Manners, soprano, as highlights of the Cities Service radio concert, conducted by Dr. Frank Black, Friday, at 7 p. m., EDST., over WEAF. Miss Manners also will be heard in the "Bubble Song" from Friml's "High Jinks" and with Ross Graham, baritone. in Stothart's "When I'm Looking Graham's solo will be the new Berlin hit, "I Poured My Heart Into a Song."
