Men And Women Match Wits On 'What's My Name?' Program

Females Know Their Stuff, Broadcast Survey Shows; Gen. Hugh Johnson To Sub For Dave Elman

Men contestants from the studio audience will have one of their last chances of the summer to overtake the women in tests of mental agility when Arlene Francis and Budd Hulick take to the air with "What's My Name?" Wednesday at 9 p. m. over the NBC-Red network.

Psychologists may say that men in general are quicker thinkers than women, but it's worked out just the opposite on "What's My Name?" according to Arlene and Budd.

Since "What's My Name?" has been substituting for Fred Allen, the average prize for the women contestants has been $8.74, showing that most of the women have found the answer on the second clue of possible four given each to General Hugh S. Johnson will pinch-hit for Dave Elman as conductor of "Hobby Lobby" Wednesday at 8:30 p. m. over the NBC-Blue Network.

Columnist, commentator, and keen military strategist, he will give a last-minute comment and analysis of the European situation as it exists at that time.

Elman was due to rejoin the program this week, but has decided to take one more week of lest after an emergency appendectomy which has already prolonged his vacation longer than intended.

Among the hobbyists whom General Johnson will interview is Alice Marble, American woman's tennis titleholder. Following a valicty of hobbies in her spare time, Miss Marble does everything | from design her own clothes to sing in night clubs. Tranquility descends on the Bar-
