Jean Ellington Will Sing With Riggs And Betty Lou

NBC's Glamour Girl To Be Heard At 7 P. M. Monday; Order Of Adventurers Has Unusual Talent

Jean Ellington, NBC's glamour girl singer, will be with Tommy Riggs and Betty Lou Monday at 7:00 p. m. over WEAF. Freddle Rich's orchestra will accompany the guest star when she sings her solo.

On the comedy end of the half hour program, Betty Lou will enter Tommy's pictures in a 'handsome bridegroom' contest, prize for which is a free honeymoon trip to Niagara Falls. The ensuing complications involve a strong supporting

"Golden Boy" at the Quilna presents a vivid story of people whose lives approach reality as near as the screen can bring them. Barbara Stanwyck, Adolphe Menjou and William Holden are starred in this beautiful, but human story of a boy whose ambitions conflict with his ideals.

At the Ohio theatre Carole Lombard, Cary Grant and Kay Franeis present a refreshingly different story of the cternal triangle "In Name Only." Miss Lombard's work as "The Other Woman' and the portrayals of the married couple by Grant and Miss Francis are superlative, ranking tmong the finest of these three favroites.
