Tommy Briggs And Betty Lou To Have Blues Singer As Guest; Lightweight Bout On Air Monday Night

Alec Templeton, the witty improviser, parodist, mimic and musician, will headline a sparkling new half hour program, "Alec Templeton Time," to be heard weekly over WLW and WEAF beginning on Monday at 9:30 p. m. The youthful British-born planist's newest program series also will feature a choral group under the direction of William Miller and a string orchestra led by Daniel Saidenberg.

Templeton also will play host to guest stars on the program. Donald Dickson, radio and operatic baritone, is to lead off the list of visitors by an appearance on the September 25 broadcast. BEST BETS
