The finalists in the first countryvide "Gateway to Hollywood" talent quest, make their screen debut n "Career," which features Anne Shirley and Edward Ellis at the Sigma Wednesday.

Selected from thousands of entrants in regional tests staged over the air on a nation-wide hook-up and before the cameras, Alice Eden and John Archer are said to justify the predictions of crease of nearly 30 per cent in the judges who selected them for contracts. Archer is east in the romantic lead opposite Anne Shirley, while Miss Eden portrays the daughter of the town drunk in "Career," a vivid dramatic story of provincial life.

"Torchy Plays With Dynamite," latest of the Torchy Blane comedies starts Wednesday at the Sigma theatre. Especial interest attaches to this particular Torchy picture, because it brings to the screen another actiess in the role
