LaFollette, Knox Argue Arms Embargo Repeal Over WENR Tonight

KEN CARPENTER

Ken Carpenter, shown here, head chime ringer of Bing Crosby's Music hall, started out to be an actor and at the age of 6 had organized his playmates into a theater troupe. They gave plays and comedy sketches in his father's barn until it mysteriously burned down during a performance. Ringing the fire alarm was Ken's first step towards playing the NBC chimes every Thursday night.

Chicago Gets Final Contact Session

CHICAGO—The University of Chicago's football team today engages in its final scrimmage for the Harvard game Saturday. Stress again was to be placed on blocking and tackling. Wallace Ottomeyer, minor letter winner, has been practicing as fullback and apparently is the choice to replace the injured Bob Howard as starter against Harvard.

Zupke Stresses Illini Pass Attack

TUCSON, Ariz.—Wendell Wilson, director of athletics at the University of Illinois, who scouted Southern California in its first two games, met the Illini football team on their arrival here Wednesday morning and with Head Coach Bob Zupke mapped plans for Saturday's game in Los Angeles.

Harvard Will Have a Kelly

CAMBRIDGE, Mass.—There'll be a Kelly in Harvard's lineup against Chicago Saturday and that'll ring a familiar note to followers of the crimson. This Kelly, named Dart, is a brother of Shaun Kelly, captain of the 1935 eleven. He'll play right end. The squad today went through a 40 minute dummy scrimmage against the "C" squad as Coach Dick Harlow completed his serious preparations for the invasion of the midwest.

Indiana Gridders Flout Superstition

The old superstition about travel on Friday the 13th seemingly holds no terrors for the University of Indiana football squad. In charge of Z. G. Clevenger, director of athletics, the squad, numbering 45, will arrive in Chicago early Friday morning and leave the Union Station at 9:10 a. m. in special sleeping cars routed over the Milwaukee Road to Janesville, where the squad will spend Friday night, leaving Janesville at 11 a. m. Saturday for the one hour trip to Madison.

Public Satisfied Meade Deserved His Chance

By JACK GUENTHER
NEW YORK—(U.P.)—Less than a year ago a lot of racing fans were saying that Don Meade didn't deserve a second chance. That was when the pinch-faced little jockey was reinstated by the Florida racing commission after nine appeals from a life suspension imposed because he had bet on horses other than the ones he rode.

There never seemed a reason for Meade to get into trouble for what couldn't have been more than a few thousand dollars. Meade didn't need money that badly. Although he never won a national title, he always was in the top flight. In 1935 alone he earned almost $40,000. Yet a year later he was suspended for pulling his mounts.
