Dawson Marks 92nd Birthday in Arena Monday

STEPHEN DAWSON

ARENA—Stephen Dawson, Arena, will celebrate his 92nd birthday anniversary Monday and the entire village will turn out to honor him.

Members of the Congregational church, who have organized a "Dawson club" under the direction of Dr. W. W. Moore, Arena physician, have planned a special rally day to commemorate the veteran's service to church and town.

Well known to the community and the surrounding area, Mr. Dawson covers the village as a notary public, serving those who cannot come to his office.

He never waits for a car when he makes a trip in the village, but sets out at a brisk pace, on foot.

Mr. Dawson has two sisters, Mrs. Mary Ann Hodgson, who will be 90 next spring, and Mrs. Alice Dougherty, who is 80. The sisters also are Arena residents.

Americans Win Five Art Prizes

PITTSBURGH—(U.P.)—Apparently recoiling from a world occupied with wars and rumors of wars, the international board of judges of the 1939 Carnegie International art exhibit has awarded five of the seven prizes to American artists, one to a Frenchman, and the other to a Spaniard.

First prize of $1,000 was awarded to Alexander Brook, New York, for his "Georgia Jungle," a picture of a family scene in an open field near a rural town. Brook, a jurist at the 1935 Carnegie International, apparently tried to put on canvas a documentary portrayal similar to that done
