MacMurray, Miss Carroll To Team In Monday Radio Play

'Invitation To Happiness' Will Be Heard At 9 P. M.; Basil Rathbone To Do Sherlock Holmes Drama

Fred MacMurray and Madeleine Carroll take the leading roles in the fast-moving comedy romance, "Invitation To Happiness," in the Radio theatre on Monday. The story of the boxer who fell in love with a lady is heard over WABC at 9:00 p.m. under the producership of Cecil B. DeMille.

"King" Cole, the boxer, is played by Fred MacMurray with Madeleine Carroll as the irresistable Ethel Wayne who comes from a well-to-do family. Against the wishes of her father slie marries the "King" in an off-moment and lives to regret it.

Conrad Thibault, popular radio and concert baritone, will be the join Alec Templeton in one of the pianist - music's tune-fun parties Monday, at 9:30 p. m., over WEAF. From electrician's helper to floorwalker and finally to radio by way of grand opera is Thibault's success story in a nutshell. He first sang publicly as a member of a church choir in his home town of Northampton, Mass.

Templeton will present more of his original musical impressions and selections by the 12 voice mixed choir directed by William Miller and the orchestra conducted by Daniel Saidenberg will complete thrilling spy story of all time, is continuing to please Sigma fans. Featured roles in this dramatic, dynamic story of the unknown beroje men and women of the foreign service are taken by Joel Mc-Crea, Brenda Marshall and George Bancroft.

This picture will snow until Wednesday when "The Unexpected Father" and "The Lady Vanishes" will be shown.

The gay, exciting, touching emotional story of an American youth catapulted into a position of great power is unreeled in "Mr. Smith Goes to Washington," current Quilna attraction. Mr. Smith is portrayed by James Stewart and Jean Arthur is seen as his secretary. Other notables in this picture, which is believed by many to be an Academy Award winner, are Claude Rains, Edward Arnold, Guy Kibbee and Beulah Bondi. Starting Monday at the Majes-
