200 MARCH IN OTTAWA PARADE

Children Dressed As Bunnies Draw Big Hand In Hallo-ween Celebration

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—Nearly 200 children and adults donned evening frocks from con-stocks to evening dresses and entered Ottawa's Hallo-ween parade here last night to compete for prizes totaling $100.

The best group children's prize of $20 went to Joan and Jean Heckman and Marilyn Doepker for their little bunny float that brought innumerable remarks of "Isn't that cute" from the spectators.

Two of the children pulled a small wagon that was wrapped in pink dye paper in which the third child rode dressed as a rabbit. The two children pulling the vehicle also wore bunny costumes.

The Continental band played during the evening and led the parade. Moments denoted 100 pounds of peanuts when were given to children.

Judges of the parade were I. M. Cummings and Marilyn Doepker for their little bunny float that brought innumerable remarks of "Isn't that cute" from the spectators.

Following are the parade winners: Adults' best dressed group...
