

Radio News and Programs

DOROTHY DAVIS

Dorothy Davis knows how to sing swing in a style which listeners like. As a result, her swift rise as vocalist for top-flight radio bands is not surprising. Dorothy has a versatile voice which enables her to put forth arrangements which the jittersbugs love or, just as easily, she can croon moon songs in a manner that makes you want to sigh.

Town Meeting Puts 'Effects of War' Under Mike Tonight

The European war's effect on the American laboring man will be discussed in America's Town Meeting of the Air at 8:30 tonight. Participants in the program, to be aired by WENR, will be John Carnody, administrator of the Federal Works agency; Mark M. Jones, consulting economist; and Prof. Henry Pratt Fairchild, New York university sociologist.

Other headliners tonight, classified:
