

Grid Coaches Set On Radio Show With Grantland Rice

"Red" Dawson And Mal Stevens Will Prognosticate On Possibilities In Tulane And Columbia Clash Saturday

Lucille Manners, soprano, will sing the famous Habanera from Bizet's "Carmen" as her feature solo during the concert Friday at 8 p. m. over W.E.A.F.

The ensemble will open the concert with Cole Porter's "Ridin' High" and also will present Duke Ellington's "I Let A Song Go Out of My Heart" and a medley of Rodgers and Hart tunes.

"Red" Dawson, Tulane's head coach and Mal Stevens, coach of N. Y. U.'s "Violets" will be interviewed by Grantland Rice.

They will prognosticate on the following day's games when the "Greenwave" meets Columbia's "Lions" and the "Violets" meet the Georgetown "Hoys."

Louise Masey will sing "Partner, It's the Parting of the Ways as a highlight of the Plantation Party, Friday, at 9:00 p. m., over WJZ.
