Greet 'Last'

Guardsmen

The pleasant Indian summer

preceding two weeks disappeared

Monday and had the civilian soldiers moving fast and hard in their drill routines to keep warm. The troops are housed in heated, ventilated, and electrically lighted bar-

Cavalry troops took the field in spectacular scouting drills as

Brigadier Gen. Ralph M. Immell, commanding officer of the 53rd cavalry brigade ordered practical for the week. Medics will establish and operate their base and they may have to get important

Approximately 1,000 troops of the national guard are in this, the conditions.

Bureau of Standards Faces Tough Problem

Grading food quality is extremely diffi-cult. Deciding when a bottle of grape juice is "good" and when dilution makes it "weak" when radio performance is "good" and when radio defects make it "poor" is also a touchy problem. To be sure of good radio reproduction, your set should be checked by an A. R. T. expert every six months

Radio News and Programs Who's Who Among News Broadcasts Wisconsin Birds

The Rose-breasted Grosbeak has been described as "a most beautiful bird with a sweet voice.

It is a common summer resident throughout the state and is most abundant in the southern deciduous forests where it is generally distributed. Its nesting range takes in the area from southern Canada east to the Rocky mountains south to central Kansas and southern Missouri, east to central New Jersey and in the mountains to northern Georgia. It winters from southern Mexico and Yucatan to Colombia, Venezuela, and

The diet of the Rose-breasted Grosbeak is about equally divided between animal and vegetable foods. It eats berries and fruits, mostly wild, green seeds, weed seeds, a small amount of grain and even less of garden vegetables. Its animal food consists of potato beetles, cucumber beetles, locusts, cankerworms, tent-caterpillars. army worms, moths, chinch bugs, ilies, etc.

This is another of the birds that can be found in a variety. of dress. The adult male in

He announced that Norman Thomas, national socialist leader, will speak to a student group Dec. 11, when he is in Madison to make an address in favor of peace. His talk will be sponsored by the Y. C. A. W., who will ask him to speak on the conscription issue.

Concerning the scrolls which the organization is circulating, Rumsey said that scrolls will soon be placed in all student centers "we expect to make the university students conscious of the need to fight against war."

City Wins $150 for Damage to Fire Truck

The city of Madison was granted $150 for damage to a fire truck in a settlement out of court approved Monday by Circuit Judge A. C. Hoppmann:

The settlement concluded the city's suit against Stanley N. Davenport, 648 Pickford st., and his surety, the Casualty Reciprocal Exchange, Kansas City, Mo., for damages done to a truck from No. 4 company by Davenport's car. PLATTEVILLE—Funeral serv- The city had sought $300.
