

Kay Kyser's College To Hold Classes At Boston

New Rodger-Hart Tune To Be Vocal Highlight; Doc Rockwell Listed To Guestar With Fred Allen

The land of the bean and the cod will be the campus for Kay Kyser's College of Musical Knowledge when the genial professor holds classes in Boston, Wednesday at 10 p. m. over WEAF.

The new Rodgers and Hart tune, "I Didn't Know What Time It Was," will be featured by Ginny Simms as a vocal highlight.

Fred thinks everything is going to the bow-woos anyway, so he will take his Mighty Allen Art Players to the dog show with himself as sleuth in a mystery sketch.

The irrepressible radio personality, "Elmer Fudd," as portrayed by Al Pearce, finds himself in the hands of the law and clapped in the "clink" as a result of being an enterprising young man and peddling his wares on a Hollywood street corner.

Aiding and abetting Pearce in the comedy department will be Billy (Roll Out The Barrel) House, and Edna Harris who will be found helping her mythical offspring "Junior" with his homework.

Back from his annual visit to Van Buren, Ark., Bob Burns, bazooka and all, will share the microphone with Benj. Crosby during the Thursday broadcast over WEAF at 10 p. m.

AUGLAIZE UNIT AT STATE MEET

100 To Take Part In Activities Of Farm Bureau Gathering

(Lima News Bureau) WAPAKONETA, Nov. 29 — More than 100 Auglaize-co Farm Bureau members today were in Columbus attending the annual meeting of the state organization

Clarence D. Brown, county agricultural agent; Miss Jessie Bourne, county home demonstration agent; and Mrs. J. C. Whetstone, director of the county Farm Bureau chorus, were among those attending.

The majority of those attending from this county are expected to return to their homes tonight while another large delegation is planning to motor to the capital city to attend the closing sessions of the meeting Thursday.

Members of the Farm Bureau chorus at about the same time will join with 1,000 others from all sections in the state for a massed concert which is to be broadcast over a Columbus radio station.

Members of the Auglaize group which will take part in the concert are Mrs. A. H. Wiebe, Mrs. Arnold Danneberg, Mrs. William Dinges, Richard and James King, Mrs. Louis Tangeman, Mr. and Mrs. William Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Wright, Harold Bowersack, Arthur Long, Arthur Zimmerman and Harold Hucksmeier.

Clifford and Harry Seibert, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Becker, William Zimmerman, Mrs. Nellie Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Wagner, Daniel and Harvey Seibert, Lorraine Boonace, Lawrence Schroeder, Ewald Schroer, Arthur Weiland, Leonard Schroer, Mrs. Rufus Sattlage, Mrs. Benjamin Niemeyer, Miss Ruby Fell, Miss Dorothy Schmidt, Miss Rachel Katterheirich, Mrs. Otto McGowan, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Whitney, Russell Cook and Mrs. Arthur Walter.

It worked close to 8,000 feet up.

Comedy And Action Offered In Two Films At The Sigma

"The Under-Pup" And "Range War" Feature Robert Cummings, Nan Grey And William Boyd

Robert Cummings and Nan Grey have the romantic leads in "The Under-Pup," delightful hit which opens Wednesday at the Sigma. Cummings has a colorful role as an imaginative summer camp athletic director and Miss Grey plays a camp counselor.

William Boyd, portraying Hopalong Cassidy, turns handit for a day to blast open the crooked conspiracy that threatens to rule the west in "Range War," also at the Sigma.

The inspiring career of Edith Cavell, especially in regard to her work in helping war fugitives to escape from the combat zone, and her sensational trial for these activities, is the basis of the dramatic saga, "Nurse Edith Cavell," starring Anna Neagle, now at the Ohio.

"The Amazing Mr. Williams," current Quilna hit, is the third romantic comedy in which Melvyn Douglas and Joan Blondell have been co-starred. Miss Blondell is the amazingly dumb (like a fox) secretary who keeps Douglas, the blithe super-sleuth, chasing her.

A picture for the entire family is "Five Little Peppers and How They Grew" also at the Quilna, featuring Edith Fellows.

Scheduled to start Thursday at the State are "On Borrowed Time," with Lionel Barrymore and Bobb Watson, and "Five Came Back," starring Lucille Ball. The first picture sees Barrymore, as grandpa, trying to keep away from Mr. Brink, who really is Death.

Ending Wednesday are "Dust Be My Destiny," with Priscilla Lane and John Garfield as two nobodies on the road to no where, and "Missing Evidence."

Two action pictures are scheduled to start Thursday at the Lyric theater. They are "Mutiny on the Bounty," and "Clouds Over Europe."

Showing for the last time Wednesday are "Hotel for Women," with Ann Sothern, Linda Darnell, Elsa Maxwell, and "Winner Take All."

Life's greatest pitfall is exposed in "Damaged Goods," showing at the Majestic thru Thursday. "Completing the program is "Sunset Murder Case."

Life's greatest pitfall is exposed in "Damaged Goods," showing at the Majestic thru Thursday. "Completing the program is "Sunset Murder Case."

All of these events are filmed as a heart-grIPPING saga. It will show until Saturday when "Remember" starts.

THREE NAMES CERTIFIED

SIDNEY, Nov. 29 — Three names were certified by the State Civil Service Commission as a result of the recent examination taken by 11 persons for the position of superintendent of the Shelby-co county home.

Combining business with profitable pleasure was the recent good fortune of Alexander Hall, director of "The Amazing Mr. Williams," which co-stars Melvyn Douglas and Joan Blondell at the Quilna theater.

Douglas and Miss Blondell are supposed to track a murder suspect to the place and there confront him with the evidence of his guilt. And Hall steadfastly maintained that he knew nothing about such things and must, therefore, take a day off to study the betting windows of a huge race-track.

That his studies proved of financial advantage to him, Hall admitted only under intense questioning. "Well, what if I did put down a two-dollar bet now and then? I had to, didn't I?" At the end of his day's study, Hall was some 70-dollar ahead!

In the cast of "The Amazing Mr. Williams," in addition to the stars, are Ruth Donnelly, Edward Brophy, John Gray, Clarence Kolb, Donald MacBride, Luis Alherni, Don Bodine and others.

Hollywood's lively picturization of Margaret Sidney's juvenile classic, "Five Little Peppers and How They Grew" ends its delightful engagement at the Quilna theatre on Friday. Edith Fellows is featured in the film, with Clarence Kolb and Dorothy Peterson prominently cast.

How a courageous World War nurse puts her love of humanity above either patriotism or the laws of war, is the basis of one of the season's most dramatic offerings, "Nurse Edith Cavell," at the Ohio.

The thrilling film graphically depicts the ordeal of the heroic nurse whose martyrdom evoked a horrified response from the entire world.

When the World War broke out and the German army of occupation took over the city of Brussels, Cavell, an English, remained at her post, dedicating her life to alleviate the suffering of the wounded regardless of nationality.

Nan's career dates back to 1934, when she came to Hollywood on a vacation from her home town, Houston, Texas. With no thought of film acting in mind, Nan nevertheless received three contract offers. She accepted one, and has been in Hollywood ever since.

It was Joe Pasternak's production of "Three Smart Girls," starring Deanna Durbin, that started Miss Grey on the road to film prominence. Just three years later, Nan takes part in the film in which Gloria Jean makes her screen debut.
