

Bob Burns To Be Welcomed Back By Bing On Thursday

Florence George And Harry Carey Will Also Be Heard With Crosby; Ask-It-Basket Will Have "Sticklers"

Bob Burns will be welcomed back while Annabella (Mrs. Tyrone Power) will make her debut on Bing Crosby's program Thursday at 10 p. m. over WEAF. The occasion also will mark a reunion of prominent alumni, Florence George and Harry Carey.

Over and above the usual Crosby-Burns interviews there will be such musical hors d'oeuvres as the Musetta Waltz from "La Boheme" and "My Old Kentucky Home," sung by Mrs. George, and a long awaited bazooka solo by virtuoso Burns.

Lou Holtz, whose comic guest appearances in recent months have been an almost weekly procedure, bobs up on Good News of 1940, Thursday at 9 p. m. over WEAF. The broadcast also will feature new mischief by Baby Snooks (Fanny Brice), and songs by Connie Boswell.

Edward Arnold, jovial master-of-ceremonies, will present the regular Good News performers. Snow, stars, and statues are among the popular subjects that will furnish brain-teasers for Jim McWilliams Ask-It-Basket, presented at 8 p. m. over WABC.

Contestants also will be called upon to identify and sing old popular favorites as part of the "Anything Can Happen" basket, one of the hilarious features of McWilliams' quiz-variety show.

Jose Turbi, prominent pianist and conductor, will direct the Rochester Philharmonic orchestra in a performance of Beethoven's Third Symphony on Thursday, at 9 p. m. over WJZ. Turbi, one of Spain's outstanding musicians, has been frequently heard with several of America's foremost orchestras.

In an attempt to make friends with the Barbours, Margaret Lloyd, Cliff's current romantic attraction invites Hazel, Claudia and Mother Barbour over for a visit during the episode of One Man's Family Thursday, at 8 p. m. over WJZ.

"What Kind of Peace Can Europe Make?" will be discussed during America's Town Meeting of the Air, Thursday at 9:30 p. m. over WJZ. Participants will be Linda Littlejohn, president of the Equal Rights International; Frederick E. Auhagen, editor of Today's Challenge and director of the American Fellowship Forum; Maurice Hindus, author and lecturer on world affairs, and John Gunther, author and NBC commentator. The usual question and answer period will follow the prepared speeches.

Miscellaneous and sundry. . . . The Transcontinental Broadcasting System will go on the air Jan. 1 with more than 100 stations from coast to coast. Elliott Roosevelt, its president, has announced. Al Pearce is the owner of a "Scrabble," radically streamlined car with a motor in the rear. There are only two in the country, the other being owned by P. K. Wrigley.

Latest Blondie Film To Be On Quilna Preview Friday

Popular Cartoon Strip Characters Back In All Their Glory; "The Wild Stallion" Will Also Be Shown

"Blondie Brings Up Baby," newest of the gay and hilarious comedies based upon Chic Young's popular cartoon strip characters, will be previewed Friday evening at the Quilna theatre, with Konga, the Wild Stallion. The Blondie vehicle again stars Penny Singleton, Arthur Lake and Larry Simms as the popular Bumstead family.

Showing for the last times Friday will be "The Amazing Mr. Williams" and "Five Little Peppers and How They Grew."

A romantic comedy of modern married life, "Remember" commences Friday at the Ohio theatre with Robert Taylor, Greer Garson, and Lew Ayres starred. Taylor is cast in the action role of a young advertising executive who falls in love with his girl's fiancée at first sight, the beginning of a serious of complications with Taylor, Ayres and Miss Carson affording plenty of laughs. Showing for the last times Thursday is "Nurse Edith Cavell" starring Ann Neagle.

William Boyd, as the dauntless "Hopalong Cassidy," and Russel Hayden, as his old saddlemate, "Lucky," ride into action again in the "Sigma's" attraction "Range War," to bring to justice a crooked landowner and his cronies. Also at the Sigma is "The Underpup," starring Gloria Jean, 11-year-old singing sensation in her debut, and Robert Cummins, Nan Grey, Virginia Weidler, Frank Jenks and C. Aubrey Smith.

The H. M. S. Bounty sails again with a crew headed by Charles Laughton, Clark Gable and Franchot Tone in "Mutiny on the Bounty" at the Lyric theatre. The thrilling sea story of the surly sea captain and his mutinous crew is once again pictured for Lima audiences with this sensational episode of maritime history losing none of its appeal. Also at the Lyric is "Clouds Over Europe" with Laurence Olivier, Valerie Hobson and Ralph Richardson in the leading roles.

"Borrowed Time," with Lionel Barrymore as "Grandpa" and Bob Watson as "Bud," is current at the State theatre with "Five Came Back." Lionel Barrymore and Bob Watson are credited with stirring performances in the story of the man who defied death that his grandson could be happy.

The Majestic offers a double hit attraction with the popular Hardy family picture, "The Hardy Ride High," with Mickey Rooney, Lewis Stone, Cecilia Parker and Fay Holden, and "I Was a Convict" commencing Friday. "Damaged Goods" and "The Sunset Murder Case" will be shown for the last times Thursday evening.

Britt "Speedy" Wood, harmonica-playing favorite. While it is the singing voice and youthful charm of the eleven-year-old newcomer, Gloria Jean, that furnishes the pleasant surprise to audiences viewing "The Underpup" at the Sigma theatre, the amazing youngster is by no means the whole show of the new romantic comedy.

Producer Joe Pasternak, maker of all the Deanna Durbin hits and one of Hollywood's outstanding production chiefs, has turned out another entertainment nugget in "The Underpup." Played by an imposing cast, well directed, and amusing comedy, romance, moments of drama and music, the new film is filled with surprises.

No surprise, however, is the sparkling romantic team of Robert Cummings and Nan Grey, already established by their appearance together in "Three Smart Girls Grow Up." And the outstanding cast performs as anticipated. Among the leaders are Reulah Bondi, Virginia Weidler, Margaret Lindsay, C. Aubrey Smith, Billy Gilbert, Ann Gillis, Raymond Walburn and many others.

EUGENE, Ore., Nov. 30.—(INS)—Serving legal papers upon a 7-month-old baby was the unique experience of Deputy Sheriff Neil Gillions of Eugene.

It was necessary to serve papers on all heirs to an estate in a probate case and the baby was one of the heirs.

The baby accepted the document willingly and immediately started to chew it and tear it to pieces. His father rescued the paper before damage had been done.

Brenda Frazier, last year's society glamour debutante drew oh's and ah's when she modelled a Paul Flato necklace embodying a $1,000,000 diamond (hanging on her neck) at the Ritz-Carlton in New York. The 125-carat stone is owned by Harry Winston and is part of a 726-carat stone found five years ago. It is reputed to be the largest diamond in the world with modern cutting.

signed that nobody wants it; Baby Dumpling adjusting himself to school routine, and Daisy, the dog, unaccountably disappeared, "Blondie Brings Up Baby" comes to the Quilna theatre Friday night with more than the usual hectic hilarity of the Bumstead series of sensational film comedies. According to advance report, "Blondie Brings Up Baby" is filled with more refreshing humor and cyclonic action than even its brilliant successful predecessors.

Those who have seen this feature hail it as a worthy successor to "Blondie," "Blondie Meets the Boss" and "Blondie Takes a Vacation," the trio of highly-praised comedies that has been launched upon the foundation of Chic Young's popular cartoon strip.

"Blondie Brings Up Baby" again brings Penny Singleton to the screen as Blondie; Arthur Lake as Dagwood; Larry Simms as Baby Dumpling and Daisy, the inimitable dog, as Daisy.

Added to the presence of the popular featured players, as assurance of the high standard of "Blondie" comedy, is the direction of Frank Strayer, who has officiated in this capacity for all four productions.

Those who love horses will thrill at the sight of the magnificent stallion who plays the title role in "Konga, the Wild Stallion," due to open Friday night at the Quilna theatre. Fred Stone, Rochelle Hudson and Richard Fiske are featured in the exciting story of range war, romance and horses. Others in the cast include Robert Warwick, Don Beddoe, Carl Stockdale and Eddy Waller. Sam Nelson directed.

OHIO
At a time when the world needs so desperately to laugh, one of the most completely satisfying entertainments of this or any other year will arrive Friday to win enthusiastic audience approval at the Ohio theatre.

It is "Remember?" a picture you won't soon forget, starring Robert Taylor and Greer Garson, with Lew Ayres. Flawless cast, the picture was given the deft direction of Norman Z. McLeod who made the "Topper" pictures, and a fast-action screen play by McLeod and Corey Ford, national magazine writer and humorist. Dealing with the trials and tribulations of modern married life, the story is highlighted by bright dialogue, hilarious comedy situations and a warmly human romantic theme.

Taylor has never been seen to better advantage than in the role of an ambitious advertising executive, wrapped up in his job, who falls in love with his best pal's fiancée, "at sight," complicating all their lives. A delightful surprise for movie-goers who were entranced by her memorable performance in "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," Miss Garson exhibits a rare talent for comedy and is as vivacious and dashing a modern girl as she was a gentle and charming "Mrs. Chips." Ayres rounds out a threesome that is doing something every minute, with never a dull moment.

The story has some unusual plot twists that will not bear revealing but, in brief, tells of two young people who rush into marriage because they can't help themselves, are separated by misunderstandings, and then get a miraculous second chance of which they take full advantage. New York is the fast-moving background, with the World's Fair as one of its varied settings and a fox hunt with a love scene played in a mud puddle that is the funniest seen in many months.

"Remember" boasts a supprting cast of film favorites who can always be depended upon for top performances, including Billie Burke, Reginald Owen, George Barbier, Henry Travers, Laura Hope Crews, Richard Carle, Sara Hadden, Sig Rumann, Armand Kaliz, Halliwell Hobbes and Paul Hurst.
