

Colleges To Be Saluted By Johnny Green, Fred Waring

Honors Set For Schools Friday Evening; "Quiz Marathon" Uncovers Eridute Gotham Hosiery Salesman

Dartmouth, Oklahoma university and Temple will be saluted in a special football medley of Johnny Green and his orchestra with the Swing Fourteen on "Johnny Presents" over WABC Friday, at 9 p. m.

Other numbers will be "Goody, Good-Bye," "Make With the Kisses," "I Didn't Know What Time It Was" and "All the Things You Are." Vocalists are Glenn Cross and Genevieve Rowe.

The dramatization will be another of Max Marcin's "Perfect Crime" stories, this time "The Tell-Tale Clue." Introductions are by Johnny the Call Boy.

"O. K. Oklahoma," newest Fred Waring composition in the series of original college songs, will get its sendoff on Fred's Pleasure Time program over WEAF Friday at 7 p. m. University of Oklahoma students and graduates will hear the Waring 55-voice Glee club introduce the new pep number.

Radio's "quiz marathon," popular feature of the Don't Forget show, has uncovered another eridute New Yorker. He is Joseph Weinfuss, hosiery salesman, the second person to ride triumphantly thru two broadcasts of the program, heard each Friday at 8:00 p. m., over WJZ. He has been invited to face Allen Prescott for a third shot at the $200.00 goal on Friday. An additional guest, Mary Erwin, New York business woman, who marshalled her pupils to pass successfully thru one program, also will appear on the broadcast.

Selections from Gustave Luders' "Prince of Pilsen" will be featured by Lucille Manners, soprano, Ross Graham, tenor, and the orchestra under Dr. Frank Black Friday at 8:00 p. m. over WEAF. A special arrangement of "Old Heidelberg" will be Miss Manners' solo. Grantland Rice, veteran sports columnist and avid observer of the current pigskin decade, will make his customary predictions on coming gridiron battles.

Rosemary Lane, motion picture star, will headline George Jessel's "Celebrity Program" over WJAF Friday at 9:30 p. m. Others to be heard are Parkyakarkus, the Greek dialectician; Arthur William Brown, popular writer and illustrator, and Max Bacrach, authority on furs. Music is under the baton of Peter Van Steeden with vocals by the Merry Maccs.

If while hunting you see a two-legged something in blue overalls, a pipe in his mouth and long hair, shoot — it's a farmer, not a deer. This is the advice to be offered by Whitey Ford, the Duke of Paducah, on Plantation Party, Friday at 9:00 p. m. over WABC. A veteran deer hunter of many seasons, the Duke hesitates to mention that the only luck he ever had was bagging his pants.

Mark Twain's classic, "The Prince and the Pauper," will be presented as the favorite children's story of his daughter, Mrs. Oslip (Clara Clemens). Gabrieliwitsch during the broadcast of Yesterday's Children, Friday from 7:30 to 8:00 p. m. over WJZ.

Mrs. Gabrieliwitsch dates her
