Jack Haley Is Guest Star Wednesday Night; Former Vaudeville Pals Together Again In New Radio Feature

Determined to make radio history, Fred Allen will lead his Mighty Allen Art Players thru their own version of James Hilton's "Goodbye, Mr. Chips." in the broadcast with Portland Hoffa, Harry von Zell, The Merry Macs, Wynn Murray and Peter Van Steeden's orchestra over WEAF Wednesday at 9 p. m.

In addition, Fred will present as guest star of the evening, his former vaudeville pal and protege, Jack Haley, the Tin Man of "The Wizard of Oz." in his own sequel to that movie to be entitled "After the Tin Man."

In a unique version of James Hilton's "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," Allen, whose face makes a lemon look as sweet as a rose, will take the title role of the kindly English schoolmaster.
