STOCK PRICES DOWN SLIGHTLY

Trend Is Shade Lower, Altho Dealings Remain In Narrow Groove

LIMA STOCKS
Deisel - Wemmer - Gilbert Corp., open 18, high 18, low 18, last 18.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9—(AP)—Stocks shifted over a narrow road in today's market.

It was a typical Saturday session with boardroom attendance light and most traders inclined to await the new week before expanding commitments very far either way.

Dealings were slow from the start and fractional plus and minus marks were about evenly divided at the beginning of the final hour.

Edging forward were Bethlehem Steel, Youngstown Sheet, Chrysler, U. S. Rubber, Western Union, Sears Roebuck, Pennsylvania, Southern Railway, Douglais Aircraft and Glenn Martin.

A shade in rrears were Aconda, Boeing, International Harvester, Santa Fe, Standard Oil of N. J., Du Pont, Goodrich, North American and Air Reduction.

A dribble of year-end tax selling and foreign liquidation still received some of the blame for apathetic markets. The home economic outlook, tho, had its pleasing spots despite skepticism for the early part of 1940.

Major commodities did better. Bonds were sluggist and a trifle uneven.

Financial quarters saw further signs of at least a moderate letdown in the lengthy business bulge as federal reserve figures for last week disclosed the country's department store sales dropped 5 per cent under the comparable 1938 level.

Declines of 10 per cent in distribution at New York and 29 per cent in the Boston district helped pull down the national level. Slight decreases were recorded at Philadelphia, Richmond, Chicago, Kansas City and San Francisco, while small gains were reported from Cleveland, Atlanta, St. Louis and Dallas.

Those studying the utility stocks noted estimates from trade sources that 1939 gross revenues of the power and light industry should aggregate $2,650,000,000 or 5 per cent better than in the preceding year.

WHEAT RISES IN EARLY DEALINGS

Lack Of Rain In Hard Winter Grain Belt Causes Purchasing

CHICAGO, Dec. 9—(AP)—Buying was resumed in the wheat pit today and prices advanced almost a cent a bushel in early dealings.

Failure of the official forecast to predict any precipitation in driest sections of the hard winter wheat belt over the week-end caused some purchasing.

Opening ⅛-¾ cent higher, December 97¼-⅜, May 93⅞-91, wheat later held near this range. Corn started ⅛ off to ¼ up, December 54, May 56¼-⅜.

Gang Busters To Give Case Of Architect Of Crime

Col. Roscoe Turner To Be M. C. On New Weekly Radio Show Devoted To Exploits Of American Aviators

Eddie Bentz, the only underworld character who outsmarted John Dillinger, drew up blue print plans for bank robberies, several of which will be dramatized on Gang Busters, Saturday, at 8:00 p. m., over WABC. The details will be related to Colonel H. Norman Schwarzkopf by an officer connected with the case.

Bentz, known as the "architect of crime", learned the approximate sum of money stored in a bank on certain days by consulting newspaper files in the public library. But the success of his ventures, for which he regarded himself as intellectually superior to the police, went to his head. After cutting a wide swathe of crime thruout the country, he met his defeat at the hands of police he had scorned for so long.

Colonel Roscoe Turner, winner time and again of the coveted Harmon and Thompson aviation trophies, will be master of ceremonies on Sky Blazers, the new weekly radio show dramatizing the true and daring exploits of men and women who pioneered the airlines.

The new aviation series, with Colonel Turner at the controls, will be heard weekly over WABC starting Saturday at 7:30 p. m. Each broadcast will present dramatized adventures of a famous pilot.

Peter Lorre, famous screen player, will be starred in "Nobody Died," Arch Obeler drama to be presented from Hollywood Saturday, at 9 p. m., over WEAF.

What would the elixir of youth do to our modern civilization? That is the question propounded by Obeler's play, a development of an idea first presented in the young author-producer's "Immortal Gentlemen."

Lorre gained an international reputation as portrayer of a psychopathic character when he appeared in "M," great German horror film. He has been the star of several "Mr. Moto" pictures. In his first American broadcast Lorre was a guest of Rudy Vallee on NBC, as star of Obeler's "Prelude to Murder."

Once more the accent will be on youth when teen age girls and boys discuss and demonstrate their hobbies during the Bright Idea club session, Saturday at 10:30 a. m. over WEAF. Guests to appear on the program will be John Coleman, cross-country runner from Manual Training high school, Brooklyn; Ruth Popkin, designer of plaster plaques; Michael Castaro, boy cooking expert, and forty young Harlemites, spiritual singers.

Stormy and Sandy, two cowboys who had long feuded over their dogs, provide the Old Ranger with his story for the Death Valley Days broadcast over WEAF Saturday at 9:30 p. m. The pair quarrelled frequently over the fighting ability of their pets until one day the dogs did fight and Stormy's was killed. This only added fuel to the feud, which ended, however, with renewed friendship in a manner to be revealed by the Old Ranger.
