Attracting huge crowds to the Ohio theatre Sunday was "Another Thin Man," packed with nystery and mingled with comedy. Bill Powell and Myrna Loy again are seen as Mr. and Mrs. Nick Charles and they have a cute little surprise. Asta, the almost human dog, also is starred.

Showing at the Sigma theatre is "The Dead End Kids on Dress Parade," starring all of the "toughies" and John Litel. The story opens in a tough city and a boy who believes in being tough is being sent to a fine military school by a friend.

"Barricade," with Alice Faye and Warner Baxter, at the Quilna s a thrilling drama with most of the action taking place in northern China. Baxter is seen as a cynical reporter. On the stage, Dan Carabrese presents accordion music and Richard E. Sylvers tells natrons secrets of the past and mysteries of the future.

Two great films, "The Old Maid," and "Torchy Plays with Dynamite," are at the State.
