Lombard, Grant And Francis Share Honors In "In Name Only;" "Blackmail" Also Showing

Carole Lombard, Cary Grant and Kay Francis share honors in one of the year's most noteworthy entertainments, "In Name Only," now showing at the Ohio theatre. The hectic love affair of Grant and Miss Lombard, and how their romance is handicapped by a mercenary wife (Miss Francis) form the pulsating story. Also at the State is "Blackmail" starring Edward G. Robinson.

A new Garbo who laughs, sings and dances to ultra-modern music has reached the screen in "Ninotchka," now at the Ohio. Garbo supported by Melvyn Douglas and Ina

The twin threat of menace from the air as well as from the underworld is confronted by the famous detective in "Charlie Chan in City in Darkness," at the Quilna theatre. With Sidney Toler, as Charley Chan, are Lynn Bari, Hareld Huber, Pedro de Cordoba and C. Henry Gordon, Also at the Quilna is "Too Busy To Work," a new Jones family funfest.

The Sigma presents a beautiful romance and a hilarious comedy in a double hit program. "Intermezzo; a Love Story" stars Leslie Howard and introduces Ingrid Bergman in her sereen debut. 'Little Accident" combines the infantile antics of Baby Sandy with the expert "woo'woo's" of Hugh Herbert, Richard Carlson and Florence Rice provide the romantic angle.

A queer twist of fate brings Charlie Chan to the playground of elamorous women to save an innocent girl from death in "Charlie Chan in Reno" at the Lyric theatre, with Sidney Toler again playing the popular Oriental sleuth. Also at the Lyric is "Spy 77" starring Greta Nissen is an exciting story of invisible foes.
