broadcast on WABC Wednesday, from 8 to 8:30 p. m. Believe it or not, the feature of the program will be singing by Headman Pearce and Arlene "Human Chatterbox" Harris. Something you would expect, Elmer Blurt will be making resolutions. The unusual experiences of a young couple who, while walking in the park, stumble over a fatally wounded man, and then get mixed up with his pursuers and a small fortune which enables them to get married, will climax "Marry the Girl," the Radio Guild presentation of Wednesday at 9 p. m., over WJZ. Written by Ben Lee, the drama tells the story of an unhappy pair who are prevented by poverty from marrying but who finally realize their dreams in a most unexpected way.

Kay Kyser follows the current trend with revivals of past popular tunes on his "College of Musical Knowledge" broadcast over WEAF Wednesday at 10 p. m. Included are "Three Little Words" and "Some of These Days." Vocals will be by Ginny Simms who features "Indian Summer" and "I Didn't Know What Time It Was:" Harry Babbitt singing "All the
