Stars Of New Film Will Be Guests On Kate Smith Hour

Don Ameche, Al Jolson And Nancy Kelly Set On Broadcast At 8 O'Clock Friday

Evening

Kate Smith will bring the stars of 20th Century-Fox's new technicolor picture, "Swance River," to New York for its air preview on her musical program Friday. Don Ameche, Al Jolson and Nancy Kelly will travel from Hollywood to New York to appear on the broadcast over WABC at 8 p. m.

Nancy Kelly will enact for the air show the role taken in the picture by Andrea Leeds who is now in Honolulu on her honeymoon. Once a frequenter of the Kate Smith Hour when she appeared in support of celebrities in the singer's dramatic sketches, this is Nancy's first appearance with Kate as a star in her own right.

Ameche and Jolson also will sing the numbers featured in the picture in their roles of Stephen Foster and E. P. Christy, head of a company of minstrels. The story is based on the life of the well-loved composer of America's southern folk songs.

Fred Waring has written a tune called "The Rose Bowl Song," that has been officially adopted by the Tournament of Roses band of Pasadena Junior playing the annual climax to the Tournament of Roses.

Waring's Pennsylvanians and the Glee club will introduce the composition on the air during the Underground Treasure." Pleasure Time broadcast over the WEAF on Friday, at 7 p. m. The Tournament of Roses band, famous for their yearly participation in Rose Bowl festivities, will feature the song during this year's game between Tennessee and University of Southern Cali-The "Celebrity Program" of George Jessel, celebrating the renewal of its option, will have an all-star oldtimers' variety program at 9:30 p. m. Friday, included in the list of guests are Elsie Janis, Eddie Leonard, Blanche Ring, Francis X. Bushman, Ann Pennington and George Rector. The regulars, Peter Van Steeden's orchestra, the Merry Maca and Ben Grauer, compete the program's Whitey Ford, Duke of Paducah enlarges upon the idea that "A resolution is only as strong as the weakest promise" when he discusses New Year's resolutions during the Plantation Party, Frimusical portion will be by Tom, Dick and Harry, Louise Massey, Larry Wellington on the accordion, basso Michael Stewart.

Do you suspect your late Uncle Esau buried a pot of coins in his back yard? Have you a hunch! there's oil under the old farm? Do you own a bloodstained map shows where Captain Kidd's doubloons lie deep?
