to Go on Air

BULLETIN

President Roosevelt's address to congress will be broadcast by NBC-WIBA at 1 p. m. Wednesday, the station and network announced

When Speaker William B. Bank-read opens the third session of the 6th congress Wednesday, radio will be on hand to air the event to the nation. Station WIBA will air the broadcast at 11 a.m. It is not certain as yet whether President Roosevelt will address the houses, but if he does, his words will be included in the broadcast.

However, it is definite that Mrs.

Franklin D. Roosevelt will broad-cast Wednesday. The president's wife will speak to the Young Women's Christian assn. on "Training for Democracy" at 4 p. m. over

Rankin to Ask 100 Millions for REA

WASHINGTON - (U.P.) - Rep. John Rankin (D., Miss.), one of President Roosevelt's advisers on is small in contrast with the 1,564 power matters, said Sunday night he will seek an appropriation of $100,000,000 for rural electrification at the coming session of congress.

He said rural electrification is doing more for American farmers than anything else the government has undertaken.

"This program must go forward until we place electrification in the reach of every farm home in American, at reasonable rates," he

His statement coincided with a year-end summary of the activi-ties of the Rural Electrification Administration by its chairman, Harry Slattery, stating 1,700,000 farms, or 25 per cent of all farms in the United States, now enjoy the advantages of high line electric service.

Slattery said 225,000 rural users connected in 1939 brings the total of users receiving service from REA systems to about 400,000.

"The task into which REA if they did not resign so a peace swings with the new year is to conference could be held, the make electric service of the utmost swings with the new year is to use and profit to these new users, and to extend service to many the scene of action, asked that thousands of additional farms," he
