Slightly Lower Tendency Prevails In Early Wall Street Dealings

NEW YORK, Jan. 6 — (AP) — Slightly lower tendencies prevailed in today's early stock market.

Petroleum company shares came in for attention as trade sources estimated domestic crude production in the current quarter may approximate 335,000,000 barrels, or about 10 per cent more than in the first three months of 1939. Consumption was expected to show an increase of 6 to 8 per cent over last year, so that only a moderate seasonal inventory expansion is anticipated.

Broadening of retail stores thruout the country were further exemplified by federal reserve figures disclosing department store distribution in the final 1939 week topped the same period in the preceding year by 8 per cent. Principal gains were reported for the districts of Philadelphia, Cleveland, Atlanta and Dallas.

"SCARLETT" MAY WED IN MONTH

HOLLYWOOD, Jan. 6—(AP)—Scarlett O'Hara and Mr. Wuthering Heights wouldn't talk today, but friends said they hoped to get married within a month if their present spouses get divorces by then.

Vivien Leigh, the heroine of "Gone With the Wind," and Laurence Olivier, star of the film, "Wuthering Heights," made no secret of their engagement but declined to discuss the divorce situation.

Miss Leigh's husband, Barrister Herbert Leigh Holman, filed for divorce in London yesterday, naming Olivier co-respondent.

Friends of Olivier said his long-estranged wife, Actress Jill Esmond, had filed her first papers in London for a divorce.

PHILADELPHIA LEAGUE OPENS JUROR SCHOOL

The school is sponsored by the Philadelphia County League of Women Voters. Approximately 700 attended the opening session. Judge Gerald F. Flood will take his students thru an actual case from the beginning to the end of a trial.

Dizzy Refuses 50 Per Cent Pay Cut Demanded By Cubs

DALLAS, Tex., Jan. 6—(INS)—Dizzy Dean today announced that he would not sign his 1940 contract with the Chicago Cubs calling for a 50 per cent cut from his previous salary of $20,000.

"I want to be fair about this thing," the pitcher said. "I admit that I didn't come up to expectations last season and it's only right that I should take some kind of a cut. Even a $5,000 cut would be all right—but 10 thousand? Nix!

"I expect to have one of my best years in 1940 because I believe I've at last found what's caused all my trouble. Just a few days ago the doctor that checked me over found out from X-rays that I had an impacted wisdom tooth that had to come out. The nerve in that wisdom tooth was just too much for me. With that out of the way, I ought to be back in my old form."

Crosby Boys Will Be Heard On Caravan Hour Saturday

Bing Will Sing Salute From Hollywood As Bob Brings Band To Show; Sky Blazers Set Thrilling Yarn

With his famous brother, Bing, singing "Summertime" in a salute from Hollywood, Bob Crosby and his Dixieland band will join the caravan Saturday at 10 p. m. over WEAF. Features of the initial broadcast by the Bobcats will include Crosby's special arrangement of the old jazz classic, Basin Street, Mildred Bailey's debut with the band, and Bob's solo, "Blue of the Night." Other selections will be "The One Love Belongs to Somebody Else" and "High Society."

High on a rugged Rocky mountain plateau, in the midst of a blinding snowstorm, an Indian boy once lay dying from a poisonous rattlesnake bite. Yet Bill Brooks, an intrepid aviator, who became America's No. 1 stunt pilot, took off in a rickety plane and flew the boy to a distant hospital to save his life—part I of a thrilling story that will be dramatized on the Sky Blazers program Saturday at 7:30 p. m. over WABC. Authentic details will be told by Col. Roscoe Turner, master-of-ceremonies.

Sky Blazers will tell how Brooks' heroic effort repaid a similar gesture on the part of the lad's father, an old Sioux Indian Chieftain. Some years before, Brooks had been saved from freezing to death when the chief found him lost in the mountains during a storm.

Commencing Saturday, Senator Ford, old time vodvil comedian, will become almost a regular on Milton Berle's Stop Me If You've Heard This One when he joins the gagbusters for a four week stretch. J. C. Flippen will continue on the program and Vincent Travers' orchestra, originally scheduled only until Dec. 30, will be carried over until the middle of next February.

The colorful reign of "Soapy" Smith, dictator of Shagway, Alaska, during the Klondike gold rush of 1897, will be dramatized as the Old Ranger's Death Valley Days story on Saturday at 9:30 p. m. over WEAF. A paradoxical character, completely unscrupulous, and yet possessed of many humanitarian qualities, Soapy robbed newcomers and rich miners returning from the gold fields, and turned the money over to the poor. Events leading to his decline and fall provide an unusual climax to the story.

Pick and Pat, veteran blackface team, take their places as "regulars" of the National Barn Dance sociable Saturday at 9 p. m. over WJZ. The pair were individual minstrels when they first met in a New York cafeteria in 1927. An immediate friendship blossomed to partnership and they turned to radio work. Sharing hayloft honors will be Bobby Hastings, Uncle Ezra, Eddie Peabody, Henry Burr, the Hoosier Hot Shots, Jane Kaye, the Octet and Joe Kelly.

Terse, factual accounts of concerted efforts by police authorities to apprehend three dangerous criminals — Charles Irving Chapman, Theodore Cole and another gunman—who are still at large, will be dramatized on Gang Busters at 8 p. m. Saturday, over WABC. Highlights of the series will be related to Col. H. Norman Schwarzkopf by officers closely associated with the cases.

This program will conclude the fourth consecutive year of the popular Gang Busters series. In that time, Gang Busters has been instrumental in effecting the capture of over 130 malefactors.

Arch Oboler, who started the New Year right by simultaneously renewing his contract with the National Broadcasting Co. as an author-producer, and by joining the scenario writing staff of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures, will present "Money Money Money" with screen actor Edmund MacDonald in the starring role, as his first original drama of 1940 over WEAF Saturday, at 8 p. m.

This play, a modern ghost story in which money jingles instead of chains, was first presented by the British Broadcasting Corp., last year while Oboler was visiting England.

OHIO BANK FACILITIES AMPLE, ASSERTS SQUIRE

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 6—(UP)—Retiring after more than four years as superintendent of state banks, Samuel H. Squire, Elyria, said today that Ohio has ample banking facilities now and that there should be no need for issuance of new charters soon.

Squire, who has submitted his resignation to Governor Bricker, will be succeeded on Jan. 15 by Rodney P. Lien, Lima.

Squire foresaw on the basis of increasing business activity for 1940 a larger demand for banking credit.

He emphasized that state banks are increasing their earnings and that all banks are eager to make loans.

Reviewing liquidation proceedings since he took office he noted that at the start there were 168 closed state banks with deposit liabilities of more than $518,000,000. Liquidation has been completed for 159 banks and of the remaining nine, liquidation should be completed within a few months, Squire said.

SENATE BUDGET INQUIRY LOOMS

Defense Requirements Will Be Emphasized Even If House Cooperation Is Lacking, Observers Predict

WASHINGTON, Jan. 6 — (AP) — A senate investigation of budgetary needs, with emphasis on national defense requirements, appeared to be in the cards today even if house cooperation in such a move was lacking.

Strong bi-partisan support for the inquiry was evidenced among senators.

Sen. Brown (D-Mich), suggested that the senate act independently, if necessary. Sen. Borah (R-Idaho) asserted that the taxpayers, as well as naval and military experts, should be heard from before congress voted on proposed increased defense appropriations.

At the same time, several Democrats added their approval to the Republican support given a suggestion by Sen. Harrison (D-Miss) that final action on appropriation bills be delayed 60 days while a 24-member house and senate committee studied prospective expenditures in relation to estimated receipts as well as the possible need for new taxes.

Sen. Tydings (D-Md) endorsed Harrison's suggestion as a step toward the formation of a "real budget in which both income and outgo are considered." Sen. George (D-Ga) said he also was favorably impressed.

Additional Republican support appeared to be solidifying behind the action of 14 minority members who came out of a caucus yesterday with a suggestion that a joint committee of senate and house military affairs members inquire not only into proposed new appropriations but into the results obtained from past expenditures.

Sen. Borah, who was not present at the caucus, said he was in full accord with the proposal.

"There has been no scientific study of the defense problem," he declared. "It's just been a haphazard proposition in which we have been asked to appropriate large sums at the beginning of each session of congress and often we have been asked afterwards to appropriate more funds.

"In addition to the army and navy experts, the taxpayers ought to be heard on this question and I think we will have time enough to make a thoro study before Hitler gets over here."

The time element was looked upon as one possible stumbling block to joint committee consideration of the budget problem, because leaders already have planned to submit 14 appropriation bills to the house in 14 weeks.

Despite this, however, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the house ways and means committee tentatively approved the Harrison suggestion after a conference at the White House yesterday.

JULIET ALWAYS WELCOME AT HOME; ROMEO ISN'T

NEW YORK, Jan. 6 (UP) — The socially prominent Walter R. Herricks looked forward hopefully today to the day when their daughter, Eileen, would come home to be forgiven for eloping with George Lowther III, whom they still won't have in their house.

"She's always welcome to come back," Mrs. Herrick said, "but I'm not including George Lowther in this statement."

"I don't want to say anything unpleasant about him, but it's his past," Eileen's father remarked.

Lowther, a Yale graduated insurance salesman and man-about-town, and his pretty, 20-year-old bride started their honeymoon in a cottage in a White mountain resort near North Conway, N. H., where they were married yesterday after a flight from New York by tram and airplane. They expect to return here in a few days, then go to Nassau, Bahamas, for a month before setting up housekeeping here.

Two courts had ruled that Lowther and his sweetheart were free to marry despite her parents objections, but Herrick and nurses and guards in his employ had kept such a close watch over the girl that when she left home Thursday it was on the pretext of taking her dog for a walk. Lowther was waiting, by prearranged plan, and they were soon out of the city.

DETROIT WOMAN BURNS TO DEATH

DETROIT, Jan. 6 (INS) - A woman was burned to death and seven other persons injured, two of them seriously, when fire swept thru an apartment house in the downtown district of Detroit early today.

The dead woman was not immediately identified.

Scores of residents were forced to flee the burning building in their nightclothes and residents of an adjoining apartment house were ordered to the street when it was feared the fire would spread.

Fifteen persons were forced to jump into life nets from second and third story windows.

Near zero temperatures impeded the work of firemen and a second alarm was rung when assistance was requested.
