'Fighting 69th' Fete, Auto Dealers' Parley Go on Air Tonight

CHARLES BOYER

Radio tonight will offer broadcasts from the annual convention of the National Association of Automobile Dealers and the annual celebration of New York's 165th infantry regiment—"the fighting 69th."

Paul V. McNutt, federal security administrator, will address the auto dealers, and his speech will come through WIBA-WENR at 8:30. The New York celebration, to be aired at 8 by WIBA, will include addresses by Col. William J. Donovan, war-time commander of the regiment and well known here through his connection with the federal oil trials; Major-Gen. Hugh A. Drum, commander of the second corps area; Gov. Herbert H. Lehman of New York, and Gen. George C. Marshall, chief of staff.

Wallie Kleinheinz Bows Lofty 664

Wallie Kleinheinz was the high bowler Tuesday night when he jarred the maples for a neat 664 series in the Capitol City league on games of 211, 248 and 205.

Another fine individual effort was turned in by Dale Clapp of the Plaza Commercial loop with 655 on 223, 199 and 235. Frank's Hi-Way Inn headed the "Creams" with 2,787 on 893, 929 and 895.

Marcella Bennett showed the way in the Eagles Ladies session by topping 555 pins on 184, 186 and 190. A new season record was hung up in the Atwood East Side Business Men's wheel when the Grady Fuels hit 2,526. The leaders:
