Westinghouse Program Will Make Debut Thursday Night

Concert To Be Heard Over 95 Stations At 8 P. M.; American Works Will Be Featured

"Musical Americana," new Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Co. program fostering the musical art of sing and emote before the American composers in both the serious and popular fields, "mike." and which features Deems Taylor as master of ceremonics and Raymond Paige as conductor of the Westinghouse Radio orchestra-100 Men of Melody, and the Swing Choir, will make its world-wide debut over 95 WJZ stations and by MEET SET FEB. 3 short wave, Thursday at 8 p. m.

Kenneth L. Watt, well-known radio writer, is producer and director, and the announcer will be Milton Cross. The Local Boards To Convene In in the story of an unwanted half-hour program of all-American compositions will include Friml's "Chansonette"; Raymond Scott's "In an Eighteenth Century Drawing Room," based on a Mozart theme; "To a Wild Rose," by McDowell: Romberg's "Where Else But Here." G. Henry Gilbert's "Comedy Overture," and a medley of Jerome Kern music.

Beginning Thursday from 8:30 to 9:00 p. m., Joe Penner and his cohorts will broadcast their regular WJZ program from the Radio City studios. After three or four weeks, however, Penner expects to return to Hollywood. The regular cast, including Dick Ryan, Penner's man "Godfrey"; Gay Seabrook, as "Susabelia"; Russ Brown, straight man, and Kenny Stevens, tenor, will accompany the madcap come-

Madeleine Carroll, British film beauty, will inject her magnetic personality into the Music Hail as the guest of Bing Crosby and Bob Burns, Thursday at 10:00 p. m., Finging sensation, and Lon Chaney, Jr., providing he recovers in time from his first visit to New York. Chancy, who will be seen as Lennie in the film, "Of Mice and Men," arrived in New York last week.

Billy Conn, the world's lightheavyweight boxing champion and Sir Cedric Hardwicke, noted British actor, will guest star on George Jessel's "Celebrity" program. Thursday at 8:00 p. m., over WEAF. Jessel will interview the duo on their careers. The show also marks the initial appearance of Benny Venuta as soloist, with Peter Van Steeden's orchestra.
