"Grapes Of Wrath" Sets Record For Economy; Gable In New Roles

HOWARD HUGHES IS SEEING DIETRICH

Marlene Dietrich and Howard Hughes are going together again, and the colony hears that he's trying to horrow her from Universal for a starring chore. . . . Metro is whipping up three radically different pictures for Clark Gable to offset his typing in the Rhett Butler role.

Al Jolson, unhappy since his divorce, and fed up with Hollywood, has sold his home to Don Ameche. . . Tyrone Power and Annabella are all settled now in the house they bought from Grace Moore. On a still night, the, they say they still can hear some of those shrill soprano notes bouncing around up in the attic.

Director John Ford adhered so closely to newsreel technique in making "Grapes of Wrath" that he set an all-time record for film economy. Used only 38,000 feet, as compared to the average of 100,000 to 150,000 feet for major productions. To obtain naturalness, Ford okayed the first take on nearly every scene, in spite of mng and stammering and fumbling of lines.

Cecil De Mille wired to have a color test made of Simone Simon for the top feminine role in "Northwest Mounted Police." He contemplates a re-discovery of the French cutie, just as Joe Pasternack gave Miss Dietrich a new career in the Destry western. . .

Twentieth-Fox publicists continue to make capital of the yarn that Zorina refused to smoke a cigaret in "I Was an Adventuress." Several months ago Warner press agents did much better with the true yarn that Zorina took nude enubaths en route to Manhattan.

"There's an international boner in "The Fighting 69th," when the first battle between the Irishers and the Alabama regiment is ascribed to an argument about the Civil war. Real cause of the camp conflict, as thousands of exdoughboys will remember, was something a good deal more timely and personal.

The stalemate on the current war's western front has led to a resumption of movie production in England, with quite a few players and executives returning from Hollywood. . . . Jimmy Roosevelt promised in a statement that he wouldn't make any highbrow pictures, and proved it by buying Ursula Parrott's "Love Song." Dick Powell and Joan Blondell will be together again, at Paramount, in "I Want a Divorce." No music. . . . Mae West will be seen next, after the W. C. Fields flicker, with Wallace Beery, . . . Norma Shearer won't do "Pride and Prejudice," a picture which had been planned for her for years. Greer Garson gets the role.

YOUNG DEMOCRATS TO SEEK MEMBERSHIP BOOST

(Lima News Bureau) WAPAKONETA, Jan. 27 Steps to enlarge the Auglaize-co Young Democratic club were taken today with the start of a membership drive, Myron Andrews of Waynesfield, president, announced.

The club will sponsor a series of meetings thruout the county to formulate plans for the coming campaign to follow the primary. Vennard Killian, chairman of the Democratic executive committee, also disclosed the appointment of Earl Bechdolt as central committeemen from Wapakoneta sec-

Lew Ayres Is Star Of New State Movie

"The Secret of Dr. Kildare," with Lew Ayres and Lionel Barrymore, flashes on the screen at rapid pace at the State theatre Sunday. The scientific detective romance in which Ayres, as Dr., Kildare, employs detective work to solve the weird terror of a beautiful heiress, guided by Lionel Barrymore as the veteran Dr. Gillespie, is the third in the popular

Ayres is convincing and often gripping, Barrymore is, as usual, compelling, and in several sequences, such as the "craps" game, reveals a new flair for comedy. Helen Gilbert's fragile beauty fits the role of the "mystery patient" and Laraine Day is again the young doctor's nursesweetheart. Harold S. Bucquet directed with deft skill.

Principals include Lionel Atwill, Nat Pendleton, Sara Haden, Samuel S. Hinds, Emma Dunn, Walter Kingsford, Grant Mitchell, Alma Kruger and Robert Kent.

Medical marvels of today including the latest in scientific apparatus and Sulfapyradine, medicine's new "miracle drug," are used as incidentals to the main mystery Effective photography by Al Gilks and a clever musical score by Edward Ward embellish the fast-moving detective tale.

Jascha Heifetz, world's most renowned violinist starred, Samuel Goldwyn's new major production, "They Have Music," will also be showing at the State theatre on Sunday unfolds a gripping story of human interest, highlighted tense and thrilling action. principal remantic roles are played by Andrea Leeds and Joel Mc-Crea, while the important supporting roles are portrayed by Walter Brennan, Gene Reynolds and Tommy Kelly, Archie Mayo, who staged such hits as "The Adventures of Marco Polo" and "The Petrified Forest," directed "They Shall Have Music."

UCT WILL HOLD DISTRICT MEET IN LIMA FEB. 5_

More than 150 members from 12 northwestern Ohio cities are expected to attend a banquet of the United Commercial Travelers of America to be held at 6:30 p. m. Monday, Feb. 5, according to H. A. lonecker, local secretary and program chairman.

The affair will be staged in the Argonne hotel, with Harold Smith, of Racine, Wisc., supreme coun cillor, and E. A. Robbins, of Chil licothe, grand councillor, as the principal speakers. Other dignitaries also will be present.

The meeting will be the first of a series of five in Ohio, and Lima was chosen as the site for the only session in the northwestern part of the state.

Representatives are expected from locals in Toledo, Sandusky, Fremont, Fostoria, Findlay, Van Wert, Kenton, Bellefontaine, Urbana, Piqua and Sidney. The banquet will afford members from thruout the district an opportunity to become acquainted with their supreme councillor, Slonecker announced. C. H. Saylor is senior councillor of the Lima local, No. 17.
