Brown Bomber Joe Louis To Be Fred Allen Show Guest

Heavyweight Champ And Nasal-Voiced Comedian To "Spar" Verbally Only; Smash Hits On "Avalon Time" Program

Fred Allen, if he doesn't lose his nerve in the meantime. will take on heavyweight champion Joe Louis as his "Person You Didn't Expect To Meet" over WEAF Wednesday at 9:00 p. m., EST.

The Brown Bomber in training for defense of his fistic crown against the challenge of Arturo Godoy, the South American whirlwind, on Feb. 9, will use Allen only as a verbal sparring partner. The go is scheduled for fifteen minutes, with Harry von Zell as the third man in the ring.

In addition to interviewing the champion, Fred will adopt one of his favorite air characters, "Jedge Zeke Allen," and hold hillbilly court, with Portland Hoffa, The Merry Macs, Wynn Murray, The Mighty Allen Art players and Peter van Steeden's Troubadours at the bar of justice. Without moving beyond range of his favorite brass cuspidor, Jedge Allen will solve the latest murder in the hill country foud.

"Do I Love You," hit tune from the Broadway success, "Du Barry Was a Lady," will be Dick Todd's contribution to "Avalon Time," Wednesday, at 8:30 p. m., over WEAF. Todd also will be heard with the chorus in "Red Sails in the Sunset" and Bob Strong's or-"Liza." Slap-happy Grandpappy Cliff Arquette will be featured with Don McNeill as master of ceremonies.

Charles Boyer will star in "The Man From Yesterday," dramatized from a story by Leslie Gordon "Hollywood Playhouse," Wednesday, at $:00 p. m., over WEAF. Boyer will take the part of a shipwrecked playwright
