PEACEFUL MOOD Two Great Pictures Found Current On Lyric's Screen

"Here I Am A Stranger" And "Our Leading Citizen" Have Richard Dix And Bob Burns In The Leading Roles

Richard Greene stars in the film which features Brenda Joyce with Dix at the head of a cast including three 5000-gallon tanks served Roland Young and Gladys George, Also at the Lyric is Bob the system. Two tanks contained Burns in "Our Leading Citizen," with the pride of Van Buren and third was tull of water, cast as a lawyer-philosopher.

William Powell and Myrna Loy return to the screen as rector, who with William Cameron screen husband and wife with a surprise in "Another Thin Man," at the State theatre. The couple introduce this time a juvenile "Thin Man" addition to the family. John Payne and Jane Wyman are featured in a clever comedy of a singing prize-fighter in "Kid Nightingale."

Fred Astaire, Eleanor Powell and George Murphy combine dancing talents in a gay musical picture, "Broadway Melody of 1940" now at the Ohio theatre. New dance routines, clever dialogue and novel songs are interspersed with the plot thrubut the film. plan in which he would take his | Frank Morgan, Florence Rice and Ian Hunter are included in the supporting cast.
