Customs duties paid by a person on articles imported for his own use are deductible. Import or tariff duties paid to customs officers; and business, license, privilege, excise, and stamp taxes paid to internal revenue collectors are deductible as taxes, provided they are not added to and made a part of the expenses of the business or the cost of the articles of merchandise with respect to which they are paid, in which case they cannot be deducted separately as a tax.

The federal tax of 1 cent for each 10 cents or fraction thereof paid for admission to any place (where the amount paid is 41 cents or more) is deductible, prothe taxpayer of the amount paid. Unemployment compensation contributions required under a state law, if officially classified as taxes, are deductible as taxes and not as business expenses.

INCOME TAX PON'TS Don't prepare your return without first studying the instructions accompanying the form.

Don't procrasilnate. Early assemblying of data permits a careful consideration of all tax problems.

Don't destroy the memoranda from which your return was prepared. Don't fail to fill in all items and schedules required by the return, Don't omit explanation when such hiformation is assential to a complete audit. This will save, unnecessary expense and annoyance to both you and the Government such tax for the employees, the amount may be deducted by the employer as a business expense, and the employees are required to report as additional income in their federal income-tax returns the amounts of the tax so paid for

License fee exacted by a state or city upon certain businesses are deductible as taxes. Automobile license fees are ordinarily taxes and deductible. Postage is not a tax and is not deductible. In general, taxes are deductible only by the person upon whom they are imposed.

Federal estate and gift taxes and state inheritance, estate, legacy, or succession taxes are not deductible, on federal income-tax returns. The federal taxes on automobiles, gasoline, cigarettes, and liquor are imposed upon the manufacturer, producer, or importer and are not deductible by the purchaser or consumer. Whether or not the gasoline tax, the use tax, or the sales tax levied by a state may be deducted by the individual purchaser depends upon the terms of the state law imposing the tax; consequently, the right to the deduction, as between purchaser and seller, varies in the different states.

Western Union Ends Wire Race Service to Eight Cities

CHICAGO (U.R) United States Dist. Atty. William J. Campbell announced today the Western Union Telegraph co. has agreed to immediate withdrawal of its services from handbooks and "scratch sheets" in eight key cities in an alleged nationwide "bootlegging" of horse race information.

Campbell said the order goes into effect at the close of today's business at Indianapolis, East St. Louis, Memphis, Kansas City, Union City, N. J., New Orleans, Los Angeles and Seattle.

Storm Provides Lobster Banquet

WIN'THROP, Mass. — (U.P.)

Townfolk dined Thursday night on more than 3,000 lobsters tossed ashore by the storm, 'Old inhabitants said it was the first "lobster harvest" since the great storm of 1888.

To see during blackouts one should consume plenty of milk, butter, carrots and other green vegetables, according to London specialists.
