VERDICT: One of the best pictures Hollywood has made, and far better than "Gone With the Wind," for somehow it is more genuine, perhaps because it is about the times we're living.—State Journal.

Few actually expected the story would reach the screen in its raw and bitter intensity.

|Cab Calloway's Here This Week

CAB CALLOWAY

Cab Calloway, king of Hi-De-Ho, will bring his Cotton club orchestra to the stage of the Orpheum theater Wednesday and Thursday.

On the screen, Jean Cagney, sister of Jimmy Cagney, makes her screen debut in the comedy romance, "All Women Have Secrets."

Frisch Pins Hopes on Rookie, 20

PITTSBURGH - (U.P.) - A 20year-old rookie infielder looms as the central figure in Manager Frankie Frisch's rebuilding plans for the Pittsburgh Pirates as the first group of Pirate baseballers headed westward toward their San Bernardino, Calif., training

Success or failure of the Pirates' infield may depend on Frank Gus-tine, just turned 20 four days ago: The Chicago native joined the Pirate entourage in Chicago Satur-

Madison Triangles Defeat Poynette

The Madison "Y" Triangles nipped the Poynette Merchants, 331 31, Saturday night in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium by maintaining a two point advantage they held at the half. The Triangle led, 16-14, at the intermission and 26-21, at the end of the third quarter. Nelson, Triangle center, led the scorers with 11 points and Lyn Hovand and Boyle had eight each: Herb Noltemeyer and Oscar Hackpert each had six points for Poynette.

Godoy Gets Praise from McCarney

By JACK GUENTHER (United Press Staff Correspondent) LOS ANGELES, Cal. — (U.P.) arturo Godoy fought and ran away but he'll be back to fight another day. And he'll win.

You can take that straight from Billy McCarney, a shrewd veteran who could have given the Marquis Archibald Favored of Queensberry pointers on the manly art of self defense and whose present position as Godoy's tour manager prejudices him only slightly, McCarney says artful Arturo definitely has the stuff, and has it in his head. "I have no patience with those boxing critics and customers who find fault with the clowning tactics Godoy used against Joe Louis," McCarney began one of his famous non-stop monologues. "A man who is fighting for the title and the folding money that goes pionship match. with it—has a right to choose his

f amusing methods. "People seem to forget that when a fellow fights for the title that he is having his greatest moment," McCarney propounded. "He has been working for it ever since he was a punk kid in a gym, and now it is right before him. In 45 minutes he has a chance to even up for all the misery, disappointments, bumps, bruises, and suffering has endured. And, damn it, I think he has the right to do the job the way he thinks is best. Which is exactly what Arturo did." McCarney says the bout was all planned in advance, complete to Paul's Lutheran church, of which the hooligan shenannigans which eventually got Arturo a job as a ballroom dancer.
