SIXTH WEEK And Much Cattle

Thursday, March 14. And should not I, indeed, have pity on Nineveh, that great city, wherein are more than a hundred and twenty thousand infants and much cattle. (Powis Smith's translation.) Read Jonah 4:4-11.

How we misread the Book of Jonah debating. its marvels and missing its meaning. For more than any other Book in the Old Testament and some in the New, its message is: "The heart of -the Eternal is most wonderfully kind." Even Ni-neveh was within the bounds of Divine Concern -proud and cruel Nineveh. For there were little children in Nineveh-and much cattle

There are the tears of things in these simple lines, and such a judgment upon war-lords with their guns and bombing-planes as cries to heav-en, and will not cryin vain. For a civilization which denies the innocent and helpless a right to happy peace has within it the infection of its own We have now so many grandiose tests of ruin. greatness, and forget to our cost that only an order in which a happy child may sing himself securely to sleep can endure.

Prayer: Lord of Tenderness and Pity, who hearest the prayers little children do not know how to say, the prayers of their helplessness and their need, forgive us our sins against them; visit not Thy judgments upon us yet. Give us wisdom and strength to make Thy world safe for them. Amen.
