STUNNING SLIP COVERS MADE IN SIMPLE STEPS

Learn Tricks For A Smooth Fit

What a revelation! Your old sofa all dressed up in the gayest of chintz slip covers. Astonishing, too, how quickly and economically you make such a cover. In the style we've shown the colors are stunning - crimson American Beauty roses, green leaves on an oyster-white ground. And how pretty the full, pleated flounce!

To make your cover, work in easy steps the pin-on way. First remove all cushions, then smooth the fabric down back and over seat, a width for each section of the sofa. Pin along lines of the upholstery and cut, allowing 11/2 inches for the seams. In the same way fit other sections -- sides,

Harmony Triumphs, And Kentucky, West Virginia And Mississippi Rivals Are Friends Again

THREE DRAMATIC

SENATORIAL FEUDS

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON

WASHINGTON, March 16-(INS)-With harmony triumphent over enmity, three dramatic senatorial feuds have been ended, it was learned today, with the participants reconciled after bitter estrangement.

Each of the three feuds involved an "elder statesman" of the senate. Now on friendly personal relations, the former feudists are the Kentuckians, Sen. Alben W. Barkley, the senate's Democratic leader, and Sen. A. B. "Happy" Chandler; the Mississippians, Sen. Pat Harrison, finance committee chairman, and Sen. Theodore "That Man" Bilbo; and the West Virginians, Scn. Matthew M. Neely, rules committee chairman, and Sen. Rush t
