Kyser Show Will Celebrate Anniversary On Wednesday

Kay's "College" Rounds Out Two Years On Air; Pearce Gang To Take Own Census

Bronzed and invigorated by his six-weeks in Miami, Kay Kyser will round out two years as quizzy dean of the "College of Musical Knowledge" during the broadcast Wednesday at 10 p. m. over WEAF. In a brief ceremony observing the occasion Kyser will assist the "class" in discarding their "sophomore" garb.

"Last Night's Gardenias," a favorite song of several seasons ago, will be crooner Dick Todd's solo during the Wednesday broadcast at 8:30 p. m. over WEAF. Todd and Al Pearce and His Gang will jump the gun on Uncle Sam and take their own census during their program on WABC Wednesday at 8 p. m. Pearce, Artie "C. B. Kitzel" Auerbach, Carl Hoff and Arlene Harris all will be concerned with their questions and answers which will predate the official queries scheduled to begin April 1. Miscellaneous . . . During the three years that Gabriel Heatter's "We, The People" has been on the air the program guests have travelcd more than 2.400,000 miles and have arrived in New York via everything from roller skates to ambulances.

The roller skater was a young Texas rancher, who rolled all the way from Texas to New York for his "We, The People" appointment. Just to keep in trim, when he left New York he returned home via Boston and Chicago, still on roller skates.

The ambulance arrivee, who incidentally was in the best of health, was George C. Sheldon, a Dartmouth college student. He arrived at New York's new airport just a half-hour before broadcast time. The producers couldn't get a police escort to rush him to the studio at the last minute, so instead they hired an ambulance and rushed him in with sirens scream-

FIRE DESTROYS LARGE BARN NEAR WAYNESFIELD

WAYNESFIELD, March 27-A 40x80 bank barn on the L. D. Rockhold place, located in State Route 117, northeast of here, was destroyed by fire this week. The loss, estimated at $3,000, is partially covered by insurance. A large shed at the rear of the barn also was destroyed. Eighteen pigs eligible to register were burned in the blaze as was 800 bushels of corn and an undetermined amount

When the fire was discovered. Carl Downing ran into the hiazing structure and started a tractor which was housed in the barn. Being unsuccessful in driving the tractor thru the door, Downing threw it into high and plowed thru the siding. When he reached a place of safety he discovered that he also had saved a set of cultivators and a mowing machine which were hitched to the tractor.
