

Oscar Levant To Be Guest On Crosby Program Thursday

"Information Please" Expert Will Make Flying Trip To Coast For Appearance; Bing Has Musical Treats Carded

The erudite Oscar Levant, of "Information Please" fame, will make a flying trip to the coast to appear on Bing Crosby's Music Hall Thursday, when Bing also plans to entertain Errol Flynn and Brenda Marshall as his guests. Such old hands in the shindigs over WEA-F at 10 p. m. as Bob Burns, the Music Mads, Ken Carpenter, and John Scott Trotter will all be on hand.

Bing takes a vocal workout on "Give a Little Whistle," "Yours Is My Heart Alone," "Ooh, What You Said," "Missouri Waltz," and for his 1800 memory number, the familiar "Old Black Joe."

Kernel Lemuel Q. Stoopnagle, and dialectician Charles Cantor in the person of "O. L. Scrum," head the list of guests to appear with George Jessel during the "Celebrity" show Thursday, at 8 p. m. over WEA-F, last of the current series. Music by Peter Ven Steeden's orchestra and songs by Benay Venuta round out the show.

Martha Raye, madcap film comedienne will find herself on the Rudy Vallee program for the second successive week, Thursday, from 9:30 to 10 p. m. over WEA-F. Following her portrayal of Pocahontas to Vallee's Capt. John Smith, popular request brings Martha back to radio's hysterical historical saga as Cleopatra, menace of ancient Egypt.

Vallee, leaving his conscience behind him, will turn up before the microphone in the guise of Marc Anthony, who forgot official business and went boating instead. Slapsie Maxie Rosenbloom, Vallee's assistant at rehased history, also will be on hand when the time comes to barge around with Cleo.

Elis Ronbeck, 23-year-old violin student at the University of Southern California, will be soloist on Musical Americana, Thursday at 8 p. m. over WJZ. Ronbeck will play with the Westing-

News of 1940, Thursday at 9 p. m. over WEA-F.

Meredith Wilson's orchestra will play "Do I Love You," Powell will sing "Leavin' On the Ol' Top Rail" and the whole gang will join in another "Silly Dilly" finale as other highlights of the half hour of fun and frolic.

One of the world's most authoritative books on the early life of Rasputin, "The Mad Monk," was purportedly written under the direction of Rasputin, himself—fittingly years after his death! The author, Major R. T. M. Scott, who claims that he performed his remarkable feat by establishing spiritualistic contact with the dead monk, will be a guest on "Strange As It Seems" program, Thursday, at 8:30 p. m. over WEA-F.

Interviewed by Alois Havrilla, master-of-ceremonies Scott will reveal the amazing circumstances under which he claims he was actually "compelled" to write the story. The book was termed a novel—yet in the ten years since its publication, not one of its facts has been historically refuted by countless experts who have studied it.

March winds may still be blowing, but that won't prevent Genial Jim McWilliams from giving April Fool's Day a hilarious preview when he invites four determined contestants before the microphone on the Ask-It Basket program, Thursday, at 8 p. m. over WEA-F. Further tribute to "April foolishness" will be paid in Jim's latest "Anything Can Happen" song, which serves to introduce the unpredictable "Anything Can Happen" basket.

LONG DISTANCE SPANNED BY POLICE SHORT-WAVE

LORAIN, March 28 — (UP)—Radio car police here often receive short-wave orders from Beverly Hills, Cal. But they just listen and chuckle.

The Lorain short-wave police radio operates on the same high frequency as the Beverly Hills police radio, hence the two often get each other's calls.

Between the hours of 3 and 5 p. m. especially Lorain police find reception from California so clear that they must listen carefully to the station number to avoid chasing out on a Beverly Hills assignment.

WINS FIRST DEFENSE

CHICAGO, March 28—(UP)—Central Catholic of Fort Wayne, Ind., began defense of its national Catholic high school basketball championship last night by defeating St. Augustine, Austin, Minn., 44 to 27, in the first round of the 1940 tournament.

KEEP KIDNEYS ACTIVE IF YOU DON'T—

If kidneys do not regularly eliminate excess acids and other waste, it can lead to getting up nights, frequent scanty or off-color passage, rheumatic pain, backache or headache. Heed nature's warning. Act quickly. Get a kidney evacuant. Ask any druggist for BUKETS. Your 25c back in 4 days if not pleased.
