RICHLAND CENTER — The Oregon Youth lastic and social events at the Claims County Richland Center high school as five senior girls break all known scholastic records here and the Kite Title junior class observes leap year tradition.

Three girls are tied for the valedictorian honors of the graduating class. Each has received "A" in every course during four years of high school. The top three are closely followed by two girls with almost perfect records. The ranking five girls and their scholastic averages are lnez 1:15—Joyce Jordan - WBBM WCCO

Each of these will speak at the commencement exercises on May 29. The commencement this year will be a student program with no outside speaker. Speakers will be chosen by the seniors from the 20 students of their class of 138 who have scholastic averages above 90.

Supt. George O'Brien states that the three valedictorians have not confined their school interests to books. Miss Nee has participated in girls' basketball, band, and Miss Qualy is president of the student council, editor of the school paper, has a letter for declamation, and participates in the a cappella choir and cheer leading. Miss Breeden is a member of the student council, and accompanist, and has participated in the a cappella choir and band work. 'Marry in Haste' Old Warning in 1860

83 Years' History Fills Yellowed Scrapbook

"Marry in a heery and you'll repent at your leisure" was old even in 1860, according to a newsscrapbook Mr. and Mrs. J. E anek, member of the boxing Thompson, Sun Prairie, uncarthed recently among their attic belong-

On the same page was a little piece called "The Flower of Liberty," by an author named Oliver Wendell Holmes.

collection were bits of news of the Civil war. One non-battle item was a report of speeches by Gov. Fairchild, and Pres. Chadbourne, of the University of Wisconsin, at the dedication of a new Madison federal building.

But the editorial warning to

"young females" topped all the comment.

"The old saying if you marry in a hurry, you will repent at your leisure, was strikingly verified in a marriage that took place at Platteville the week before last," it began. "The man came up from Texas, saying he was fabulously rich, and made violent protestations of romance to the young girl. They were married at Platteville, and after living there a few days, the husband disappeared, 1935, the scrapbook was started never to be heard from again. He by Mrs. Vinceint's mother with did not leave, however, before clippings pasted on the pages of a hotel account book thought to girl's father and forgetting to re-"Let this be a warning to all young females as to what pace to take in marriage."

The liver should pour out two plats of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your fond may not digest. It may just decay in the bowels.
Gas bloads up your stomach, You get constipated. You feel sour, sunk and the world looks punk.

It takes those good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pints of bile flowing freely to make you feel "up and up." Amazing in making bile flow freely.
