Three Unusual Guests To Be Heard On Bob Ripley Show

First Woman Ever To Fly And Two Policemen Will Headline Program At 10:30 P. M. Friday

The first woman ever to fly and two very unusual policemen will be guests of Bob Ripley on his "Believe It or Not" broadcast over WABC Friday at 10:30 p. m.

Mrs. Edith Ogilvy Druce made a flight 32 years ago with Wilbur Wright in Paris. Not only did she startle the orld with her daring but also she set a fashion. A special skirt she had made to wear in the plane was afterward widely coped and become a vogue. She'll tell Ripley all about it.
