Cagney Plays A Great Part At The State

James Cagney's newest starring picture "The Fighting 69th", is the current attraction at the State theatre. In the picture he shares starring honors with Pat O'Brien and George Brent, with a featured east including Jeffrey Lynn, Alan Hale, Frank McHugh and dozens others.

Cagney is a cocky young buck brivate in the famed New York regiment and his career in the military training camp is one long series of clashes with authority. as he tries to buck the whole code of military discipline. The burly top sergeant, played by Alan Hale, is his natural enemy, and the encounters between the two of them are in the rough and tumble tradition of "The Cock-Eyed World". United in their attempts to reform the young private are Father Duffy, beloved chaplain of the "Shamrock Regiment", played by Pat O'Brien, and "Wild Bill" Donoyan, the colonel, played by George Brent. Both these latter characters are factual, while the roles played by Cagney and Hale are fictional altho they undoubted-

Lovely, dark-eyed Linda Darnell wins new laurels in her spectacular career with "Star Dust," her new stellar vehicle, at the Quilna theatre so real and thrilling that it might well have been a chapter out of her own life. Boasting the most original entertainment idea in years, "Star Dust" depicts the heartaches and happiness of two plucky smalltown youngsters, scrapping for their place in the sun and finding out things above love in the great adventure that is Hollywood. Linda scores a smash hit as the lovely girl who is discovered by talent scout Roland Young, brought to Hollywood, screentested and rejected because she's too young. But she's a determined youngster and makes a thrilling comeback that stands Hollywood on its car. And all of these things really happened to the real-life John Payne is Linda's handsome
