Noted for his creations of fascinating characters, Walt Disney has outdone himself in his new current full feature-length production, "Pinocchio," now showing at the Ohio theatre. With Jiminy Cricket, who is the outstanding star of the picture, are Figaro, the cat, Cleo, the goldfish, Lampwick, the tough boy, and J. Worthington Foulfellow and Giddy,

"Star Dust," now at the Quilna, offers lovely Linda Darneil the starring role of a film so thrilling and real that it might well be the story of Linda's own meteoric rise to fame. Paired with the beautiful feminine star is John Payne. Co-featured at the Quilna is "The Man Who Wouldn't Talk," starring Lloyd Nolan and Jean Rogers.

James Cagney, Pat O'Brien and Hughes, Mary Healy and Donald George Brent head the cast of the State's "The Fighting 69th," a stirring memoriam to Father Duffy, of the famous World war regiment. With O'Brien as Father Duffy, other characters include Jeffrey Lynn as Joyce Kilmer. Brent as Wild Bill Donovan, Alan Hale, Frank McHugh, Dennis Morgan and Dick Foran.
