500 Attack Kansas Relay Records

LAWRENCE, Kan.-(U.P)-Records that have stood for a decade were on the spot today as 500 track and field stars from 60 universities and colleges competed in the University of Kansas relays.

The record seeking efforts started Friday when the first five events in the decathlon were held with E. Lee Todd, versatile performer from Boulder, Colo., coming up with a halfway lead that gave him a chance to repeat his victory of last year. Todd, now a graduate student at Colorado university, was a Hastings, Neb., college under-graduate last year when he won the tough 10-point program by five points. Today he started the last five events with a 29-point lead over Walter Arrington, the big Michigan State star. Todd had 3,754 points and Arrington 3,725. Close behind were Uyval Jones, Wayne university. Detroit, and Leroy Floyd, Oklahoma A. and M. college. There were 14 in the field, but the others apparently did not constitute a serious threat.

The oldest record the stars will be shooting at is the 9.4 seconds mark for the 100 yards, made in 1930 by Leland of Texas Christian. Gene Littler, the sensational Nebraska university sopho-more, and Myron Piker, Northwestern's flash, are favorites in the "century" and Orville Matthews, Oklahoma university's fleet football and track star, has plenty of support. Other records include the four-mile relay mark of 17,37.8 set by Illinois, and the leap of 25 feet 4% inches made by Gordon of Inches made by Goldon of They deserted their classes and Iowa. Both were set up in 1931. day and marched with placards on the main street. Six members stand is the 4:21.7 mile made in of the school board who met 1934 by Glenn Cunningham.

It was on this track that Cunningham first began to attain fame as a miler, and this afternoon he was to appear for what may be his last Kansas appearance. Gwinn Henry, director of North Texas Teachers college be retained. twins, will complete the field.

here, and there is fond talk of a returned to their classes. 4:10 mile for the old star's valedictory.

There will be defending their 1939 title 1938. and Minnesota's crack quartet is an equal favorite to win. In the field events Beefus Bryan, the University of Texas football player who also pole vaults, will try to improve the record of 14.2 feet he set last spring. Elmer Fiackney, the intercollegiate shotput champion from Kansas State, also will be shooting at his own record of 52 feet 11/2 inches.

License fees of more than 75 per cent of the plant owners and operators affected by the Wisconsin service trade codes have been paid, William T. Marriott, chief of the trade practice division of the state department of agriculture, said today. Over 90 per cent of the licenses have been paid in Madison, Baraboo, Nec-nah-Menasha, Wauwatosa, and Wisconsin Rapids; and over 80 per cent in Racine, Kenosha, Manitowoc, Stevens Point, and Ft. Atkinson. Affected by the codes are beauticians, barbers, shoe rebuilders, and cleaners

Wins Protest of Father's Will

A circuit court jury Friday decided 10 to 2 in favor of Mrs. Mary Schmitz, Pine Bluff, in her suit to break her father's will and recover property she claimed she owned for 34 years.

Nrs. Schmit's suit was directed against Chris Schmidt, Pine Bluff, executor for the estate of her late father, Ferdinand Schulenberg, Cross Plains, and several others. Mr. Schulenberg, the complaint stated, gave his daughter a threeacre piece of property in 1904 as a marriage endowment, but willed it upon his death in February, 1939, to Carl Schulenberg, Cross Plains contractor,

Mrs. Schmitz contended her father relinquished all claim to the title when he gave the prop-

(By United Press)
Kansas City and Toledo were ight back where the argument started Saturday. In the only American Association game playable Friday, the Blues won a 4-D victory over the Mudhens, aveng-ing an opening day defeat. Other games in the Association were rained out,

A big right hander, Ernie Bonham, moved the Mudhens down on their home diamond. Only Mark Christman, Toledo's shortstop, was able to hit him.

Eddie Cole pitched good ball, and it was the home run of the Blues' outfielder, Russ Derry, that proved his undoing. With a mate on base in the fourth, Derby smash his homer over the right centerfield fence. The Blues scored single runs in the fifth and seventh, getting a total of eight ilis. Both teams played errorless ball,
