Gravel-Voiced Comedian Will Celebrate 30 Years In Show Business; Lanny Ross Looks For Missing Heir

Rochester, Jack Benny's dusky lackey whom Fred Allen will interview as his "Person You Didn't Expect to Meet" Wednesday to help celebrate his 30th anniversary in show business, is the 100th such interviewee to appear on the program since Fred started the feature in the fall of 1937.

Joining in the anniversary celebration will be Portland Hoffa, Harry von Zell, the Mighty Allen Art Players, Wynn Murray, the Merry Macs, and Peter Van Steeden and his orchestra at 9 p. m. Wednesday over WEAF.

An unusual duet by that expert twosome, Ginny Simms and Harry Babbitt, will be presented in Kay Kyser's "College of Musical Knowledge" Wednesday at 10 p. m., when they sing Andre Kostelanetz' "On the Isle of May."

Other orchestral highlights of the show will be "Sweetie Pie." "Indian Summer," "Ooh. What You Said," "How High the Moon," "Gaucho Serenade," "Don't Worry 'hout Me," "By the Waters of Minnetonka." "I've Got My Eyes on You," "Say Si Si" and "Good Lanny Ross' program has a chance to locate a missing heir provided Lanny can locate a song, tag of which is "Take Me Home

The song was requested by Mary Farrell Mohr, of 15 W. 84thst. New York City, who hopes it will be heard by her missing sister, Elizabeth Farrell, heiress to several things of value left by her late mother, Mrs. George Farrell. Lanny will sing "Louisiana Hayride," "How High the Moon," "All the Things You Are," and the song the missing woman loved on the program, Wednesday at 7:15 p. m. over WABC. Meanwhile, music researchers are looking for the song, words of which are: "The I roam mid scenes of pleasure. Yet my heart is filled with pain. For a longing sad and tender whispers, Take Me Home Again.'

Gracie Allen will give the lowdown on her campaign appearance in Dallas, Texas, before Variety Clubs of America convention on the Burns and Allen program, Wednesday, 7:30 p. m. WABC, Ray Noble's orchestra will play "You Darling You" and Frank Parker sings "The Moon as Yellow." Gracie will follow her lowdown with the song "All In Favor Say Aye." D. W. Griffith, famous Hollywood producer of silent films will teach Ken Murray to make love and Ken will do research on a picture of 1940 if it were produced a million years from now on the Hollywood portion of Star theatre Wednesday, 9 p. m. over WABC. Frances Langford will sing "Say Si Si" and "Last Night's Gardenias" and Kenny Baker will sing "Woodpecker's Song" and "I Love From New York, Dennis King will recreate for radio, a role which won him international fame when he appears in "Petticoat Fever."
