Famous War Correspondent Guest On Ripley's Program

Linton Wells Will Tell Of Unusual Adventures In Russia; Don Ameche And Claire Trevor To Do "The Bribe"

Bob Ripley's "Believe It or Not" program over WABC at 10:30 p. m. Friday brings Linton Wells, celebrated war correspondent and adventurer to the microphone. Wells will relate an unusual adventure when he was a prisoner in Russia during the revolution. During his imprisonment, he become friendly with a fellow prisoner, a Czech soldier, whom Wells taught to speak English. After their release the two did not meet for seven years until they were both guests at a dinner in England. There Wells learned that the Czech had become one of England's greatest spies. Another guest will be Gilbert Patton, better known as Burt L. Standish, beloved author of the Frank Merriwell stories. Standish, who wrote more words than any other author, has also made and lost several fortunes.

Henry Hull, star of stage and screen and creator of the role of "Jeeter Lester" in "Tobacco Road," will star during the next session of "Command Performance" over WOR Friday from 9:30 to 10 p. m. Hull will be supported by Frankie Thomas, well known juvenile screen

Don Ameche and Claire Trevor will take lead roles in "The Bribe," a dramatization concerning a policeman who took a small "retainer" from a motorist, on the Don Ameche show Friday at 10 p. m. over WEAF. Musical highlights include Ameche's presentation of "The Wind and the Rain In Your Hair" and Pat Friday's solo, "Do I Love You, Do I."

Whitey (Duke of Paducah) Ford will devote his thesis on the Plantation Party at 9 p. m. Friday over WJZ, to advice on "Love." Music relief includes "Camptown Races" by the Westerners, "Little Old Lady" by the Doring Sisters, and "Twenty One Years" comedy song by Tom, Dick and Harry.

One of the most fanatic and vicious neurotics who ever lived is the subject of the Human Nature in Action broadcast Friday at 10.45 p. m. over WEAF. Nero. Roman emperor, and last of the Caesars, whose bloodthirstiness, profligacy, and outrageous exactions won him the reputation of a monster, will be interpreted and dramatized by Dr. Harold D. Lasswe !, noted psychologist.

Kate Smith, America's first lady of song, will celebrate her ninth anniversary as a radio star by taking a dramatic part in Ben Schoenfeld's 'Johnny Appleseed" on the Kate Smith Hour" Friday, at 8:00 p. m., over WABC.

Kate in addition will feature the musical portion of the program, while also to be heard are Ted Collins, the comedy team of Abbott and Costello, the Ted Straeter Singers, and Jack Miller and his

Glenda Farrell, bright-eyed comedienne of numerous Warner Brothers screen productions, steps before the microphone in one of her typically amusing characterizations-that of a loquacious census taker--on Lincoln Highway, Saturday, at 10:00 a. m., over WEAF. In her role of a census enumera-
