Grady Nix, king of daredevil stunts and fearless bunny nix, the Australian "mile-a-minute" girl, defy the laws of gravitation during their exhibition of the "Looping Nixes." This sensational performance will be given nightly during the engagement of the W. G. Wade Shows—a gigantic entourage of collective amusements—which opens Monday and continues for one week at the Orley Park Show grounds on Bellefontaine-av. Alto this is the initial engagement for the W. G. Wade Shows in Lima, they are well known throughout the middle west where they have been exhibiting for the past 20 years.

Dietrich And Stewart Play Top Roles In State Movie

"Destry Rides Again" Title Of Western Film That Is Different; Crosby, Hope And Dorothy Lamour At Ohio

One of the season's most unusual pictures, "Destry Rides Again," now at the State theatre, co-stars Marlene Dietrich and James Stewart. The picture is a dramatic spectacle of the old west in which hard riding and quick shooting are interspersed with stirring mob scenes. Also showing is "Ma, He's Making Eyes at Me," co-starring the attractive Constance Moore with Tom Brown.

Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour are the stars of "Road to Singapore," a musical comedy now at the Ohio theatre. The quick-witted Hope and crooner Crosby are cast as fellow travelers with Lamour as a native song and dance girl with whom both are in love. Others in the cast include Charles Coburn, Judith Barrett, Jerry Colonna and Anthony Quinn.

The Sigma theatre attraction is the stirring realistic story of John Steinbeck's "Of Mice and Men," with Burgess Meredith, Lon Chaney Jr., and Betty Fields in the prominent roles. The well-known story of over-strong Lennie, his pal, George, and the trouble maker, Mae, loses none of its dramatic intensity in the screen version.

A murder mystery revealing the alliance of smoothsayers and the underworld, "The Mystic Circle Murderer," is the lyric feature with Betty Compton and Robert Fiske heading the cast of the screen extravaganza. Co-featured, has a West to War, co-featured, has a Mainet. According to police reports, Mrs. Garner Hogle, 21, of Findlay, was driver of the auto. She was west-bound in Main Cross-st. She said the boy was going in the same direction and turned in front of her.

FINDLAY YOUTH STRUCK BY CAR

Hit While Riding Scooter In Street; Woman Pedestrian Is Injured

(Lima News Bureau)
FINDLAY, April 29.—Theodore Longbrake, 4, son of Mrs. Margaret Longbrake, is in Findlay hospital today with a fractured skull sustained Sunday evening when he was struck by an auto while riding his scooter in E. Main Cross-st. His condition was described as critical.

According to police reports, Mrs. Garner Hogle, 21, of Findlay, was driver of the auto. She was west-bound in Main Cross-st. She said the boy was going in the same direction and turned in front of her.

Mrs. Carey H. Foltz, 42, of Findlay, also is in the hospital today after being struck by an automobile late Saturday night in N. Main-st. The driver of the car failed to stop, police said. Mrs. Foltz received minor cuts and bruises and a back injury. She is expected to recover.

Two other persons were treated at the hospital early Sunday for minor injuries sustained in traffic accidents. Mrs. Jane Schifferly and a slight eye injury when a car door was swung open and she fell out of the auto in the Dixie-by seven miles southwest of here.

Harold Bentley of Perrysburg was treated for head lacerations received when the machine in which he was riding failed to negotiate a curve and went into a ditch in the Mt. Blanchard-rd, two miles east of Findlay.

Bohnen are the top names in this case. "Of Mice and Men" treats of the lives of the "humble" stiffs, or migratory ranch hands, who wander from ranch to ranch doing seasonal work, always hoping that some day they will have ranches of their own.

Specifically, the story is of an abiding friendship between two of these homeless, friendless men—Lennie, huge, hulking and not too bright, and George, small, alert, and the protector of his large companion. Their fellow ranch hands are a motley crew, cast with a consummate skill by Milestone, Charles Bickford for whom whose wisdom the others depend; Roman Bohnen as the one-armed oldest with a pathetic wish to live on his own, away from the ranch; these are just two of the many unusually excellent lesser performers in "Of Mice and Men."

But it is the three leading characters that make this picture one that will win applause throughout the country. Betty Field—a rising star who has only played school-girl roles in films until now—turns in a performance as the puzzled, unhappy wife of the ranch owner's son that is startling in its depth and intensity. Burgess Meredith, as George, the protector of Lennie, has topped all his previous stage and screen characterizations with the realism he gives this role and Lon Chaney, Jr. proves himself a true son of his gifted actor-father. Taken all in all, Hal Roach's "Of Mice and Men" is an experience that no film fan should miss.

of a man who brooks no obstacles in either getting news or manufacturing news, the dramatic production, "Scandal Sheet," with Otto Kruger in a major part, will also open at the Lyric theatre Tuesday. Ona Munson plays the feminine lead while important supporting roles are enacted by Edward Norris, Nedda Harrigan, Don Reddoe, Eddie Laughton, Linda Winters, James Craig and Johnny Tyrrell. The new picture was directed by Nick Grinde.

MAJESTIC
Harems in America — but what harems! How different from the colorful, glamorous harems one reads about in the Arabian Nights. These harems are located in remote, forsaken spots — hamlets where man has not yet penetrated with his machines and his implements of civilization. This has to be so, for they are living outside the law. Harems are exposed in the picture Polygamny which is now at the Majestic theatre.

In referring to Short Creek, Arizona, the "capital of many wives," it is difficult to believe that in this age of superior women there are still a few sisters left who believe that their only mission on earth is to "replenish the earth." These naive women should be handed a Cook's tour ticket or a trip to our own Broadway. Perhaps they might change their minds.

Of course, with all the new implements of war and much roar and thunder in the background, this may not always be so.
