STAMP NEWS

THERE is small possibility of adcans series of U. S. stamps this Hayes. year. Facing the heaviest schedule in years-at least three commemoratives and 35 stamps of the Famous Americans sets—the Postoffice Department is turning down requests for inclusion of Will Rogers, Thomas A. Edison and others in the 1940 issues.

Philatelists also are urging postal recognition of the centenary of the adhesive postage stamp, in connection with the celebration to as ever." be held in May. A miniature sheet, with a reproduction of the first U. S. stamp, the Benjamin Franklin 5-cent issue, has been suggested.

France will honor heroes of the World War in a 1940 series of stamps bearing portraits of Foch, Joffre, and Gallieni. Airmails of the series may picture famous French aviators of the 1914-18 con-

France also has announced an issue to honor Paul Painleve and Andre Maginot, statesmen responsible for the construction of the Maginot Line.

The first sheet of the U.S. 5cent blue Edward A. MacDowell stamps of the Famous Americans series will be sold to the composer's widow at Peterborough, N. H., on May 13.
