Baby Snooks Will Deliver Essay For Good News Show

Super Streamlined World Of The Future Will Be Envisioned By Inventor On Strange As It Seems Hour

Baby Snooks will deliver another of her animal essays: Dick Powell will sing "From Another World" from "Higher and Higher"; and Mary Martin will swing "He Loves Me, Yes," as special features of Good News of 1940, Thursday over WEAF at 8 p. m.

A super streamlined world of the future, in which airplanes, autos and machines will run on liquid air, will be envisioned by expert Clarence L. Rivers of Elizabeth, N. J.,

MacMurray And Stanwyck Co-Starred In State Movie

"Remember The Night" Title Of Comedy-Romance: Second Picture Offered Is "The Housekeeper's Daughter"

Fred MacMurray and Barbara Stanwyck are co-starred in one of the choice romance-comedies of the season in "Remember the Night" at the State theatre. MacMurray, as a prosecutor, and Miss Stanwyck, as the prosecuted, take a holiday recess from the court rooms and find room to court. Also showing is Joan Bennett and Adolphe Menjou in "The Housekeeper's Daughter."

Of meritorious qualifications is the Lyric mystery comedy,

'The Cat and Canary," with Bob Hope and Paulette Goddard in the starring roles. With eerie settings mixed with shricks of terror and laughter, the picture offers a delightful hour of entertainment. Also commencing Friday is "Gun Play." Showing for the last times Thursday is "Young As You Feel" and "Day-time Wife."

"Seventeen," Booth Tarkington's riotous story of the stage of life when the age of innocence turns into the age of adoloscence, is now at the Sigma with all its laughs, starring Jackie Cooper and Betty Field. Co-featured is "The Ghost Comes Home" starring Frank Morgan, with Billie Burke, Ann Rutherford, Nat Pendleton and Frank Albertson.

Spectacle, mighty drama, and comance blend in "Florian," screen transcription of a novel of imperial Austria and the fall of the Hapsburg dynasty after the World war, current attraction at the Ohio theatre. Robert Young and Helen Gilbert are cast in the romantic leads, with Chailes Coburn, Regmaid Owen and Lee Bowman in support.

It's all Bob Hope can do, with cheerful assurance, to calm Miss Goddard: screen and radio fans who look to track "The Cat" into a hidden and with some shrewd deduction, passageway as the picture approaches a blood-chilling climax.
