Three Teams Tie for State Loop Lead
MILWAUKEE—(U.P.)—La Crosse and Fond du Lac advanced today in a three-way tie with Wisconsin Rapids for first place in Wisconsin State League baseball standings. Each team has five victories against four losses for a season rating of .556.
Two games Wednesday were decided in the ninth inning. Fond du Lac advanced in league standings at the expense of Wisconsin Rapids, winning 11-10 with two runs in the ninth. La Crosse downed Appleton, 5-2, by virtue of Rookie Milton Grinnell's single in the last half of the ninth scoring Hansch. Sheboygan beat Green Bay, 6-4.

Orfordville Prep Nine Wins, 6-2, to Deadlock for Title
ORFORDVILLE—Coach Kent Austin's Orfordville high school baseball team handed Brooklyn a 6-2 defeat here Wednesday afternoon to gain a tie with Monticello and Brooklyn for the flag in the Eastern section of the State Line League. Because there will be no playoff for the undisputed league title, New Glarus, Western section winner, will be considered league champion.
Orfordville turned three hits into three runs in the second and employed another trio of blows for two runs in the fifth. Girard had two of seven hits off Lawrence Belz, Brooklyn hurler. Lloyd Keesey gave Brooklyn only four hits, two by Ralph O'Brien, and fanned eight. Score by innings:
Orfordville..... 001 100 0-2 4
Orfordville..... 130 020 6-7
Batteries: Belz and Almie; Keesey and Holden.

Damaged Goods Cops Filly Stake
NEW YORK—(U.P.)—Damaged Goods, who had been beaten 21 times in 23 races, turned back 10 of the finest fillies in the east Wednesday to win the $12,025 purse of the 10th Acorn Stakes at Belmont Park and pay $143.50 on straight bets—longest parimutuel return of the New York season.
Under excellent rating by Jockey Johnny Gilbert, the Star-mount Stable miss banged into the lead at the head of the stretch and turned back the last-minute challenges of Fairy Chant and War Beauty, who finished second and third at the end of a race that was completed in the good time of 1:37 on fast footing.

Damaged Goods carried 121 pounds and paid $143.50. Fairy Chant paid 4.20 and 2.90 and War Beauty 5.50 for show.

Large quantities of wreckage, some of considerable value, have been washed up on the shores of Ireland since last September.
