"Libel Action" To Feature Newspaper Show Mythical

Kate Smith, In Farewell For Season, Will Repeat Dramatic Role So Successful Several Months Ago

Carrying on with their mythical newspaper, the "Pomona paily Bugle," Al Pearce and his cast will face court action on a libel suit, brought by "Senator Plunkett." Pearce. Artie Auerbach, Arthur Q. Bryan, Dick Lane, Carl Hoff, Josef Forte, Margaret Brayton and Wendell Niles will aid and abet the cause with doubtful testimony, 6:30 p. m. over WABC, Friday.

Kate Smith, in her farewell broadcast of the season, will rebeat the dramatic role in which she scored such a sensation several months ago, that of the narratorcommentator in Ben Schoenfield's Johnny Appleseed," on the "Kate Smith Hour" Friday at 7 p. m. over

Quiz Kids, a new radio program, will make its debut over WEAF Friday at 9:30 p. m., originating in the Chicago studios. The program is designed to emphasize the merits of the American school system. Each week five boys and girls up to 15 years of age will - participate.

Don Ameche and Claire Trever will be co-starred in "Say It With "Flowers," an original drama written for radio, during the Don Ameche show, Friday at 9 p.m. over WEAF. The story is that of a young man who buys a florist shop, then advertises for a homely sales girl. Beautiful Claire Trevor answers the ad with exciting conse-

CO-EDS DECLARE RULES SUBTLY CURB ROMANCE

CANTON, N. Y., June 28 -(UP)-St. Lawrence university co-eds are opposed to what they term "strict regulations intended subtly to curb romance."

Co-eds at Dean-Eaton hall, women's dormitory, have been instructed not to frequent the university's golf course without golf clubs during the day if they "value" their "reputations."

Should a co-ed be found on the course at night, she will be expelled "without too many questions" under the new regulations. The girls must not wear shorts cruise of the Show Boat, Friday, unless they are engaged in athleties, and in cycling, slacks must be

> Also, the girls must not "bask' in the sun with men, according to the instructions.

DIRECTOR OF DETROIT ZOO ASKS INEXPERIENCED HELP

DETROIT, June 28 - (UP)-Experts may be required to care for animals of some public zoos, but John T. Millen, Detroit's zoo director, wants only greenhorns.

Working for him as the season opening nears are eight former farmers, six automotive employes two carpenters, two mechanics, a building construction worker, a millwright, a driver of a milk truck, a blueprint worker, and a grocery proprietor.

Millen tells his recruits the habits of the animals they deal with. but he has only one set rule for all employes: "Close the doors behind you and be sure they're closed."

MAN'S BURNING CLOTHING RESULTS IN FOREST FIRE

ROLLA, Mo., June 28-(UP) -Harold Heflin, 19, suffered only a slightly burned hand when his truck caught fire on the highway near here, but he gave Forest Service rangers a busy time for several hours.

Heflin became excited when his clothes caught fire from the truck and ran into the woods. Friends beat out the fire on his clothes without serious damage to Heflin, but the flames ignited the woods and several acres were burned.

DISAPPEAR IN MONTANA ENGLISH 'GALS' CAN ONLY KNIT

KENT, Eng., June 28-(UP) -War has drained the village of Eynsford (Kent) of its male population. Virtually all its young men and 80 per cent of its bachelors have answered the call and Eynsford has become a colony of women.

The church has lost its choir, the weekly dances have been cancelled for lack of partners and the girls' only recreation is making bandages and knitting for the army.
