COMBINED BANDS TO PLAY CONCERT FRIDAY NIGHT

Sensational Stars Due At Quilna Preview On Friday

Vivien Leigh And Laurence Olivier Have Leads In "21 Days Together;" Second Film To Be "Girls Of The Road"

Vivien Leigh and Laurence Olivier, the year's most sensational stars-prove their right to national acclaim with their performance in "21 Days Together," which commences Friday night at the Quilna theatre. Also featured will be "Girls of the Road." Showing for the last times Friday is "Earthbound," starring Warner Baxter and Andrea Leeds, and "Girl in 313," starring Florence Rice, Kent Taylor and Lionel Atwill.

The State theatre offers the timely "Confessions of a Nazi Spy," starring Edward G. Robinson and Paul Lukas in a daring and sensational film revealing the innermost secrets of the world's most efficient spy system. Joe Penner, ace comedian of stage, screen and radio, is starred in the co-feature, "Millionaire Playboy"

"A Bill of Divorcement," powerful and poignant drama with uncompromising honesty and vi-tality, stars Maureen O'Hara in the lead role at the Sigma theatre. Adolphe Menjou and Fay Bainter are cast in leading roles. A clever and entertaining comedy of an old-sea dog stars Chailes Cobuin in the co-feature, "The Captain is a Lady."

Their greatest nomantic adven-ture, "New Moon," stars Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy at the Ohio theatre. Popular favorites are sung by both stars in the climatic musical teaming of the two singing stars Included in the cast are Mary Boland, George Zucco, H. B. Wainer and Giant Mitchell.

Commencing Thursday at the Lyne theatre will be "Torpedo Raider," and a Richard Arlen- that the snubs and sneets of high Andy Devine thriller, "Danger on society should not distuib a real Wheels." The Ailen-Devine picture is played against the background of auto race-tracks, the film is chock-full of breath-taking spills and crashes.

FINDLAY, July 11 - Hancock co authorities today learned of a new mode of transporting stolen property with the arrest of Tonimy Strong, 30, Alabama Negro, Wednesday by Toledo detectives on a charge of stealing a powermower from the Fostoria Country lienal emergency, Mrs Franklin

The new mower was missing last Wednesday night but showed up in l'oledo yesterday when Strong attempted to sell the equipment valued at $190 to a Toledo detective, for as little as $1.

Questioned as to how he hauled the mower, Strong admitted to authorities that he had loaded it on a freight train in Fostoria, jumped on after it, and rode into Toledo. Sheriff Lyle Harvitt said the man probably would be charged
