

Today's Radio Highlights

6:45, WRC—Postmaster General James A. Farley becomes Chairman of the Democratic National Committee to discuss major problems the Chicago Convention will face.

7:30, WOL—Alfred Wallenstein conducts his Sinfonietta: "La Tombeau de Douperin," Ravel; "Menuette Serenade," Brahms, and the Dance of the Cammorists from Wolf-Ferrati's "The Jewels of the Madonna."

7:30, WJSV—Gene Tunney stakes his sports knowledge on Choose Up Sides, that program on which, two weeks ago, Joe Louis scored 'way high up. Devereux Milburn, the 12-time ten-goal polo player, is the other guest. Arthur Mann and Cas Adams, of the Herald-Tribune, are the regulars.

8, WJSV—"Murder for Malice"—and what else might murder be for?—is the armchair detective's favorite period of Johnny Green's program.

8:30, WOL—Life in a summer barn theater and who should play the leading role but Henry Aldrich's Ezra Stone, who takes time from his regular and many chores to play the rural handyman with theatrical ambitions in "Now Playing" for Commance Performance.

9, WOL—Mutual boasts a half-hour of commentary, with Raymond Gram Swing leading off, succeeded by five minutes of A. P. news at 9:15 and then by ten minutes of military analysis from Maj. Leonard H. Nason.

9, WJSV—Representative Sam Rayburn, of Texas, talks to his State and to the Nation.

9, WRC—"Errand of Mercy" is a Red Cross yarn suggested by Irene Rich's recent offer on a benefit broadcast to collect in person any gift over $1,000. Don Ameche and Claire Trevor play this on their program.

9:30, WRC—Circle this one with a red pencil: Quiz Kids. From Chicago comes this juvenile Information Please. Two newcomers join the two survivors of the two previous broadcasts. What the kids seem to know is beyond belief.

10:15, WMAL—Colonel Philip B. Fleming, Wage and Hour Administrator, discusses the question: "Did the 40-Hour-Week Defeat France?"
